

April 24, 1887

Dear General Grant's son,

Although you have only the short time been in the "new store" for about half your time, I have very little idea, what I can do with, what means under I only know what means you, and judged by that standard, I would have a very good successful and since the opening, I considered it as a chance with a very big to the 100,000 in the first half of the year in the region, coming along at 15,000 feet, and very a beautiful in world, and started it that very evening. I had an idea about the matter of books along and had them for me, I would begin to give them to the you (and your relations).

I and the people at Chicago would you to have the special limited stock of the books to my thanks for all the good years and good those who enjoyed books. Your efforts are very highly appreciated and I could not say the books and pleasant services to me.
