Patriotism and Piety in Armenian Christianity Abraham Terian, 2005 Armenian Christianity manifests a unique blend of patriotism and piety given its ethnic character from the outset and the fact of its having survived the unfavorable currents of history Beginning from the inception of Armenian letters at the turn of the fifth century the author surveys that blend in ancient Armenian sources spanning a thousand years He shows how the theme finds its fullest manifestation as a literary motif in the medieval panegyrics dedicated to St Gregory the Illuminator founder of the Armenian Church at the dawn of the fourth century Of these the panegyric by Hovhannes of Erzenka a prolific author of the thirteenth century exhibits all the characteristics of the motif in ancient Armenian literature Consequently his work receives ample coverage in this unique study including a translation of the entire text with commentary Annotated selections from the other panegyrics on St Gregory complete the book the second volume in the AVANT series devoted to the study of the Armenian Christian heritage

Yeghishe Charents Marc Nichanian, Vardan Matt'ēosean, 2003 This book offers a collection of articles and studies on Yeghishe Charents 1897 1937 who has always been considered as the poet of Revolution in Armenia and is certainly one of the greatest poetical voices of the twentieth century in the Armenian language The volume partly gathers the essays presented at the Charents conference organized at Columbia University in November 1997 by Marc Nichanian for the centennial of the poet's birth and the sixtieth anniversary of his untimely and tragic death It was the first time an international conference on a modern Armenian writer was held at a Western University Other important essays have been added in order to echo recent readings of Charents in the United States A general introduction proposes a reflection on the poet's encounter with history his infatuation with Mayakovsky and the work of mourning that he was obliged to carry out after his renunciation of Futurism in 1924 He was forced into this renunciation in order to save his life and his career as a national poet in a Communist setting After 1926 Charents's poetical works are but a long meditation on the resources of poetry in the aftermath of the repudiation of Futurism BOOK JACKET
