[Based on Hazlitt Painted by Himself William Carew Autobiographical Material in Hazlitt's Works.]. William Hazlitt,1948 A Literary History of England Vol. 4 A. Baugh, Kemp Malone, 1959 Romantic Autobiography in England Professor Eugene Stelzig, 2013-04-28 Taking into account the popularity and variety of the genre this collaborative volume considers a wide range of English Romantic autobiographical writers and modes including working class autobiography the familiar essay and the staged presence In the wake of Rousseau's Confessions autobiography became an increasingly popular as well as a literary mode of writing By the early nineteenth century this hybrid and metamorphic genre is found everywhere in English letters in prose and poetry by men and women of all classes As such it resists attempts to provide a coherent historical account or establish a neat theoretical paradigm The contributors to Romantic Autobiography in England embrace the challenge focusing not only on major writers such as William Wordsworth De Quincey and Mary Shelley but on more recent additions to the canon such as Mary Robinson Dorothy Wordsworth and Mary Hays There are also essays on the scandalous Memoirs of Mrs Billington and on Joseph Severn's autobiographical scripting of himself as the friend of Keats The result is an exploratory and provisional mapping of the field provocative rather than exhaustive intended to inspire future scholarship and teaching Romantic Autobiography in England Eugene Stelzig, 2016-04-08 Taking into account the popularity and variety of the genre this collaborative volume considers a wide range of English Romantic autobiographical writers and modes including working class autobiography the familiar essay and the staged presence In the wake of Rousseau's Confessions autobiography became an increasingly popular as well as a literary mode of writing By the early nineteenth century this hybrid and metamorphic genre is found everywhere in English letters in prose and poetry by men and women of all classes As such it resists attempts to provide a coherent historical account or establish a neat theoretical paradigm The contributors to Romantic Autobiography in England embrace the challenge focusing not only on major writers such as William Wordsworth De Quincey and Mary Shelley but on more recent additions to the canon such as Mary Robinson Dorothy Wordsworth and Mary Hays There are also essays on the scandalous Memoirs of Mrs Billington and on Joseph Severn's autobiographical scripting of himself as the friend of Keats The result is an exploratory and provisional mapping of the field provocative rather than exhaustive intended to inspire future scholarship and teaching Consciousness. Theatre. Literature and the Arts 2011 Daniel Meyer-Dinkgräfe, 2011-10-18 The essays collected in this volume were initially presented at the Fourth International Conference on Consciousness Theatre Literature and the Arts held at the University of Lincoln May 28 30 2011 The conference was organised on the basis of the success of its predecessors in 2005 2007 and 2009 and on the basis of the success of the Rodopi book series Consciousness Literature and the Arts which has to date seen thirty volumes in print with another twelve in press or in the process of being written The 2011 conference and the book series highlight the continuing growth of interest within the interdisciplinary field of consciousness studies and in the distinct disciplines of theatre studies literary studies film studies fine arts and music in the relationship between the object of these disciplines and human consciousness Fifty five delegates from twenty eight countries across the world attended the May 2011 conference in Lincoln their range of disciplines and approaches is reflected well in this book The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art ,1887 Legacies of Romanticism Carmen Casaliggi, Paul March-Russell, 2013-03-05 This book visits the Romantic legacy that was central to the development of literature and culture from the 1830s onward Although critical accounts have examined aspects of this long history of indebtedness this is the first study to survey both Nineteenth and Twentieth century culture The authors consider the changing notion of Romanticism looking at the diversity of its writers the applicability of the term and the ways in which Romanticism has been reconstituted The chapters cover relevant historical periods and literary trends including the Romantic Gothic the Victorian era and Modernism as part of a dialectical response to the Romantic legacy Contributors also examine how Romanticism has been reconstituted within postmodern and postcolonial literature as both a reassessment of the Modernist critique and of the imperial contexts that have throughout this time frame underpinned the Romantic legacy bringing into focus the contemporaneity of Romanticism and its political legacy This collection reveals the diversity and continuing relevance of the genre in new and exciting ways offering insights into writers such as Browning Ruskin Pater Wilde Lewis MacNeice and Metropolitan Art and Literature, 1810-1840 Gregory Dart, 2012-07-26 Gregory Dart expands upon existing Auster notions of Cockneys and the Cockney School in the late Romantic period by exploring some of the broader ramifications of the phenomenon in art and periodical literature He argues that the term was not confined to discussion of the Leigh Hunt circle but was fast becoming a way of gesturing towards everything in modern metropolitan life that seemed discrepant and disturbing Covering the ground between Romanticism and Victorianism Dart presents Cockneyism as a powerful critical currency in this period which helps provide a link between the works of Leigh Hunt and Keats in the 1810s and the early works of Charles Dickens in the 1830s Through an examination of literary history art history urban history and social history this book identifies the early nineteenth century figure of the Cockney as the true ancestor of modernity Hazlitt Painted by Himself Catherine M.
