Von Poseck,2015-04-10 Publisher s note This written statement was penned over a 100 years ago The following was written nearly six years ago It was only after much hesitation and prayer that at the repeated requests of some esteemed Christians and after a careful revision I have resolved to commit these notes to print I confide in the well known forbearance of my dear fellow Christians in this country as to the imperfections of expression The twenty third Psalm has been so interwoven with the whole of my Christian course of more than 26 years and our gracious Shepherd has from this precious portion of His Pasture whenever I turned to it so often blessed my soul that I could resist no longer the desire to communicate to others what He has been pleased to give to me The dispensational side of our Psalm I have only occasionally touched upon as the chief object of it is the feeding of the soul on Christ Consequently even the great Christian principles of truth foreshadowed and embedded in this Psalm are considered only as far as they concern the flock of God for instance the question of worship at the Lord s Table where we feed upon His death when We sing of the Shepherd that died That died for the sake of the flock For however important a place the Church as such may occupy at that blessed Table of our Lord and in His counsels yet this portion of divine truth would be out of place in our Psalm May God keep us from growing into cool and enlightened churchmen to the neglect of the pastoring of the flock for whom the Good Shepherd died
