Hay Que Matar:

, Eight Novellas Ramón Gómez de la Serna, 2005 The eight novellas collected in this book display the humor exuberant spirit love of language and insight of the Spanish writer Ramón Gómez de la Serna a central figure in the European and Latin American avant garde and a key contributor of Anglo American imagism to Spanish literature Father of the prose and poetry of the Generation of 27 Gómez de la Serna was admired by T S Eliot Macedonio Fernández Oliverio Girondo Octavio Paz Pablo Neruda Alfonso Reyes and was a source of inspiration for Borges García Márquez Cortázar and Pizarnik These novellas with their humorous and witty exaggerations of everyday human foibles their simple story lines and often surprising endings are presented here in the original Spanish with a clear English translation on facing pages This book will be useful in intermediate and advanced Spanish classes and in translation courses Reflections through the Convex Mirror of Time / Reflexiones tras el Espejo Convexo del Tiempo E.A. Mares, 2022-08-15 In this poignant bilingual collection preeminent New Mexican poet E A Tony Mares posthumously shares his passionate journey into the broken heart and glimmering shadows of the Spanish Civil War whose shock waves still resonate with the political upheavals of our own times Mares engages in dialogue with heroes and demons anarchists and cardinals and beggars and poets He takes us through the convex mirror of history to the blood stained streets of Madrid Guernica and Barcelona He interrogates the assassins of Federico García Lorca for their crimes against poetry and humanity Throughout the collection the narrator is participant and commentator and his language is both lyrical and direct In addition to Mares's parallel Spanish and English poems the book includes a prologue by Enrique Lamadrid an introduction by Fernando Martín Pescador and an epilogue by Susana Rivera Lovingly shepherded and completed by friends and family this book will appeal to Mares enthusiasts and readers interested in poetry and history who will be glad to have this unexpected gift from a master's voice Antigone's Tomb / La tumba de Antígona, 2025-08-15 The philosopher María Zambrano grants Antigone a compelling new voice in her reimagining of Sophocles' tragedy which she described as something quite different that hasn't occurred to anyone Written in 1967 from exile La tumba de Antígona is Zambrano's only play and retells Antigone's story through the prism of the Spanish Civil War This dramatized talking cure evokes the eponymous hero's experience of solitude delirium and passion within the marginal space of her tomb casting her as the messenger of consciousness for the second half of the twentieth century Recent studies place Zambrano in the visionary company of women with questing minds such as Hannah Arendt Simone Weil and her close contemporary the Spanish writer Rosa Chacel whose lives were complicated by fascist conflicts that impelled them to travel across Europe and to the Americas in search of refuge Placing emphasis on the play as a text for performance this first English translation including the author's prologue and a critical introduction aims to extend interest in this trailblazing reworking of classical myth by this acclaimed Spanish woman writer and encourage further connections within exile and Antigone scholarship Escenas de una infancia Jon Fosse, 2025-01-16 El libro de relatos algunos de ellos autobiográficos
