Hazell The Making Of A Tv Series:

Hazell Manuel Alvarado, Edward Buscombe, 1978 Studying Audiences Virginia Nightingale, 1996 A critical overview of two decades of research into the television audience i Reading between Designs Piers D. Britton, Simon J. Barker, 2010-01-01 From the alien worlds of Star Trek to the realistic operating room of ER the design of sets and costumes contributes not only to the look and mood of television shows but even more importantly to the creation of memorable characters Yet until now this crucial aspect of television creativity has received little critical attention despite the ongoing interest in production design within the closely allied discipline of film studies In this book Piers Britton and Simon Barker offer a first analytical study of scenic and costume design for television drama series They focus on three enduringly popular series of the 1960s The Avengers The Prisoner and Doctor Who and discuss such topics as the sartorial image of Steed in The Avengers the juxtaposition of picturesque and fascistic architecture in The Prisoner and the evolution of the high tech interior of Doctor Who s TARDIS Interviews with the series original designers and reproductions of their original drawings complement the authors analysis which sheds new light on a variety of issues from the discourse of fashion to that of the heritage industry notions of Pop and retro and the cultural preoccupation with realism and virtual reality Developing Contemporary Marxism J. Short, 1985-02-18 The Media Studies Book David Lusted, 2013-06-17 Introducing media criticism as well as teaching about the media in inter disciplinary and across the curriculum teaching this is the first critical reference book on the important curriculum initiatives taking place in media education The core of the book is a collection of essays on key concepts from media studies including language narrative institution audience representation and the production process Written by teachers for teachers these essays organise ideas through classroom activities with a full listing of teaching materials resources agencies and publications in media education Contributors Tim Blanchard Gill Branston David Buckingham Jenny Grahame Karen Manzi and Allan Rowe Ben Moore Gillian Swanson Adrian Tilley and Tana Wollen Media and Communication Paddy Scannell, 2020-09-30 Media and Communication traces the historical development of media and communication studies in the 20th century Paddy Scannell explores how the field formed and developed in both North America and in Europe expertly introducing and explaining a host of essential media thinkers ideas and concepts along the way Including a new chapter on media events this second edition of a classic text provides a comprehensive yet personal and always accessible analysis of media and communication theory and history It is an invaluable resource for students across media and communication studies cultural studies and sociology British Cultural Studies Graeme Turner, 2005-08-18 This third edition of a popular text offers an accessible overview of the central themes language semiotics Marxism and ideology individualism subjectivity and discourse A Handbook of Media and Communication Research Klaus Bruhn Jensen, 2013-04-15 This handbook covers perspectives from both the social sciences and the humanities It provides guidelines for how to think about plan and carry out studies of media in different social and cultural contexts Media Sport Stars Garry Whannel, 2005-07-08 Media Sport Stars considers how masculinity and male identity are represented through images of sport and sport stars From the pre radio era to today s specialist TV channels newspaper supplements and websites Whannel traces the growing cultural importance of sport and sportmen showing how the very practices of sport are still bound up with the production of masculinities Through a series of case studies of British and American sportsmen Whannel traces the emergence of the sporting hero and star and considers the ways in which the lives of sport stars are narrated through the media Focusing on figures like Muhammad Ali and David Beckham whose fame has spread well beyond the world of sport he shows how growing media coverage has helped produced a sporting system and examines how modern celebrity addresses the issues of race and nation performance and identity morality and violence From Babe Ruth to Mike Tyson Media Sport Stars demonstrates that in an era in which both morality and masculinity are perceived to be in crisis sport holds a central place in contemporary culture and sport stars become the focal point for discourses of masculinity and morality Power Without Responsibility James Curran, Jean Seaton, 2024-09-06 This book attacks the conventional history of the press as a story of progress offers a critical defence and history of public service broadcasting provides a myth busting account of the internet gives a subtle account of the impact of social media and explores key debates about the role and politics of the media Power Without Responsibility has become a standard textbook on media and other courses but it has also gone beyond an academic audience to reach a wider public Hailed as a book that has cracked the canon by the Times Higher Educational Supplement it has been translated into five languages In 2019 it was awarded the International Communication Association s Fellows Book Award This ninth edition is based on a major overhaul of its content to take account of new developments such as generative AI and new scholarship in the field It also contains a new chapter on the transformed opportunity for a reformed and buccaneering public service broadcasting in the face of automated misinformation and social division locally nationally and internationally This trailblazing text is essential reading for all students and scholars interested in British media and contemporary media and society An Introduction to Studying Popular Culture Dominic Strinati, 2014-04-04 How can we study popular culture What makes popular culture popular Is popular culture important What influence does it have An Introduction to Studying Popular Culture provides a clear and comprehensive answer to these questions It presents a critical assessment of the major ways in which popular culture has been interpreted and suggests how it may be more usefully studied Dominic Strinati uses the examples of cinema and television to show how we can understand popular culture from sociological and historical perspectives Adapting Television Drama Christopher Hogg, 2022-01-01 This book explores adaptation in its various forms in contemporary television drama It considers the mechanics of adaptation as an ever more prevalent form of production most notably in the reworking of literary sources for television It also explores the broader process through which the television industry as a whole is currently making necessary adaptations in how it tells stories especially in relation to important concerns of equality diversity and inclusion Offering and analysing 16 original interviews with leading British television producers writers directors production designers casting directors and actors and with a particular focus on female and or minority ethnic industry perspectives the book examines some of the key professional and creative approaches behind television adaptations today The book connects these industry insights to the existing conceptual and critical frameworks of television studies and adaptation studies illuminating the unique characteristics of television adaptation as a material mode of production and revealing television itself as an inherently adaptive artform
