He Could Not Do Otherwise Bishop Lajos Ordass 1901 1978:

He Could Not Do Otherwise László G. Terray, 1997 The Struggle of Hungarian Lutherans under Communism H. David Baer, 2013-03-29 What does a religious community do when confronted by a political regime determined to eliminate a religion Under communism Hungary's persecuted Lutheran Church tried desperately to find a strategy for survival while remaining faithful to its Christian beliefs Appealing to the Lutheran Confessions many argued that the church can do whatever is necessary to survive provided it does not compromise on its essential ministry while others appealing to the witness of the confessor Bishop Lajos Ordass argued that the church must uncompromisingly witness to the truth even if that means ecclesiological extinction In The Struggle of Hungarian Lutherans under Communism H David Baer draws upon the disciplines of theology history ethics and politics to provide a comprehensive analysis of the different strategies developed by the church to preserve its integrity Relying on previously unnoted archival documents and other primary sources Baer has made a substantial contribution to Eastern European studies Vigorously written his telling of the history is also a sensitive and moving account of courage and cowardice in the face of religious persecution This book should be of interest not only to students of religion in Eastern Europe but also to anyone concerned about the problems that arise wherever there is religious persecution A History of Lutheranism Eric W. Gritsch, In a clear nontechnical way this noted Reformation historian tells the story of how the nascent reforming and confessional movement sparked and led by Martin Luther survived its first battles with religious and political authorities to become institutionalized in its religious practices and teachings Gritsch then traces the emergence of genuine consensus at the end of the sixteenth century followed by the age of Lutheran Orthodoxy the great Pietist reaction Lutheranism's growing diversification during the Industrial Revolution its North American expansion and its increasingly global and ecumenical ventures in the last century Dictionary of Luther and the Lutheran Traditions, 2017-08-22 In the five hundred years since the publication of Martin Luther's Ninety Five Theses a rich set of traditions have grown up around that action and the subsequent events of the Reformation This up to date dictionary by leading theologians and church historians covers Luther's life and thought key figures of his time and the various traditions he continues to influence Prominent scholars of the history of Lutheran traditions have brought together experts in church history representing a variety of Christian perspectives to offer a major cutting edge reference work Containing nearly six hundred articles this dictionary provides a comprehensive overview of Luther's life and work and the traditions emanating from the Wittenberg Reformation It traces the history theology and practices of the global Lutheran movement covering significant figures events theological writings and ideas denominational subgroups and congregational practices that have constituted the Lutheran tradition from the Reformation to the present day The Immediacy of Mystical Experience in the European Tradition Miklós Vassányi, Enikő Sepsi, Anikó Daróczi, 2017-01-19 This volume examines mystical experiences as portrayed in various ways by authors such as philosophers mystics psychoanalysts writers and peasant women These mystical authors have throughout the ages attempted to convey the unsayable through writings paintings or oral stories The immediate experience of God is the primary source and ultimate goal of these mystical expressions This experience is essentially ineffable yet all mystical authors either consciously or unconsciously feel an urge to convey what they have undergone in the moments of rapture At the same time they are in the role of intermediaries the goal of their self expression either written painted or oral is to make others somehow understand or feel what they have experienced and to lead others toward the spiritual goal of human life This volume studies the mystical experiences and the way they have been described or portrayed in West European culture from Antiquity to the present from an interdisciplinary perspective and approaches the concept of immediate experience in various ways Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism Günther Gassmann, Mark W.

Oldenburg, 2011-10-10 The Reformation of the 16th century was a complex and multifaceted political social cultural and religious process Most historians agree however that in the framework of this process it was the religious and theological efforts to reform and renew the late medieval church decadent and irrelevant in many ways that were the initiating forces that set a broad historical movement in motion Among these reforming religious and theological forces the Lutheran reform movement was the most important and influential one It was the historical impact of the theological genius of the Wittenberg professor Martin Luther 1483-1546 that profoundly changed and shaped the face of Europe and beyond Today Lutheranism has become a worldwide communion of churches that stretches from Germany to Siberia Papua New Guinea Madagascar and Surinam The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Lutheranism presents information on major theological issues historical developments of Lutheranism worldwide Lutheran ecumenical and missionary involvement and activities worship and liturgy spirituality social ethics inter religious and Jewish relations Lutheranism and the arts theology and important representatives of Lutheranism This is done through a detailed chronology an introductory essay an appendix of Lutheran Churches a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Lutheranism Theology and Ethics for the Public Church
