He Swung And He Missed:

He Swung and He Missed Nelson Algren, 1942 The Neon Wilderness Nelson Algren, 2002-01-08 As rock and roll novelist Tom Carson writes in his introduction The Neon Wilderness is the pivotal book of Nelson Algren's career the one which bid a subdued but determined farewell to everything that had earlier made him no more than just another good writer and inaugurated the idiosyncratic bedevilled cantankerously poetic sensibility that would see him ranked among the few literary originals of his times Algren's classic 1947 short story collection is the pure vein Algren would mine for all his subsequent novels and stories The stories in this collection are literary triumphs that don't fade away Among the stories included here are A Bottle of Milk for Mother about a Chicago youth being cornered for a murder and The Face on the Barrome Floor in which a legless man pummels another man nearly to death the seeds that would grow into the novel Never Come Morning Algren's World War II stories whose final expression would be in the novel The Man with the Golden Arm are also part of this collection So Help Me Algren's first published work is here Other stories include The Captain Has Bad Dreams in which Algren first introduced the character of the blameless captain who feels such a heavy burden of guilt and wonders why the criminal offenders he sees seem to feel no guilt at all And then there is Design for Departure in which a young woman drifting into hooking and addiction sees her own dreaminess outlasting her hopes Slide, 2003 In this work respected pop culture historian Anthony Slide resurrects 50 early 20th century novels with gay themes or characters and discusses them in carefully researched engaging prose Cleveland Cops John Tidyman, 2007-07 Hilarious and heartbreaking true stories told by 60 Cleveland police officers about life patrolling the streets These are stories the rest of us rarely get to hear Their biggest arrests the dumbest criminals the funniest practical jokes the most frightening moments It s an inside look at the toughest job in town Supreme Court ,1915 Everybody's Magazine ,1906
