Headteacher From Hell And Other Animals:

The Headteacher from Hell and Other Animals David E. Hellowell, 2004-01      Managing in the Educational Madhouse David Hellowell, 1999-09-01 This eagerly awaited offering will delight Hellowell's growing fan base. Research repeatedly shows the difficulty of staying sane in insane places. David Hellowell is the shining exception as once again he highlights the bizarre politics and practices of our allegedly rational education system. Read him and stay sane too. John Eggleston, Professor of Education, University of Warwick. David Hellowell's writing is for those who really take education seriously. Without his wit, insights, sense, and sensibility, we might be led into an uncritical void of educational dogma of our own and others making. He illuminates the work of headteachers and schools to bring fresh zest to our thinking. Peter Williman, Headteacher, Meadows First School, Bromsgrove.

Headteacher from Hell and Other Animals David Hellowell, 1997-01-01 An essential read for anyone who wants to make sense of the confused and confusing world of education. The Headteacher from Hell and Other Animals should occupy a prominent place on the shelves of all well-managed schools. The essays include advice for hard-pressed school managers on twenty ways to kill a new idea, bossing secretaries about flattery will get you almost anywhere, rules to make you spit.

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1999      Britain's First Black Headmaster of a Secondary School in Action Carlton Duncan, 2024-07-19 This is the real life story of Britain's first Black Headmaster of a large secondary school. In 1982 when the news first broke all of Yorkshire where it happened indeed all the United Kingdom and beyond came alive with the media frenzy which attended the historical occasion. This was no fluke since that feat was repeated four years later by the same person this time in the Midlands at one of Birmingham's largest comprehensive schools. Once the media frenzy the seemingly glamour of his achievements was over Duncan the Headmaster in question had to face the reality of managing and leading the schools which he successively headed. These were not places of friendship but more like hostile gauntlets of racism and sabotage which Duncan must navigate daily whilst equally hostile external eyes watched his every move threateningly and at times abusively. Navigating these obstacles successfully soon became a prominent aspect of the job description of this Headteacher. Beyond school life his journey was no less hazardous. It was littered or peppered throughout with difficulties such as police stops and searches, high speed police chase on the motorways, legal battles, romantic and marital discords leading to police lock up, beatings by in-laws and hospitalization on his wedding day for daring to marry a Sikh girl. With this Sikh girl Duncan would make the headlines again in the same year as becoming Britain's first Headmaster of a secondary school. In the August of 1982 Duncan's Sikh wife gave birth to the world's first black test tube twins which opened the way for a whole new dimension in Duncan's world.

For the Love of Animals James Greenwood, 2023-07-06 Growing up in Yorkshire and with farming blood in his genes, James Greenwood always knew he would end up as a vet. Animals have been part of James' life for as long as he can remember from pulling lambs on a hilltop farm as a child and having stick insects crawling out of his school uniform in class.

to renting a flat behind a zoo in Jersey and finding himself treating a newborn baby elephant as a newly qualified vet Written with his trademark warmth and humour James offers a fascinating insight into the world of veterinary medicine with tales of treating cats and dogs horses pigs and cows as well as delving deep into his relationship with his beloved and much missed one eyed Labrador Oliver However the path to realising his childhood ambition has not always been easy and at times he has questioned whether it truly is the best job in the world Through all of the challenging lows and extraordinary highs it has been the animals themselves that have spurred James on to want to continue vetting and helping him find his calling as a GP vet Warm poignant and full of heart James story is both a beautiful tribute to the role animals play in our lives and a rare glimpse into what it s really like to be a vet and is perfect for fans of Matt Baker The Yorkshire Shepherdess and The Supervet
