

What to do When Conflict Happens

THE C.A.L.M. MODEL

Clarify the Issue

- What am I upset about?
- What emotions am I feeling and why?
- Have I contributed to the problem?
- Am I just overreacting? If so, why?
- Where is the other person coming from?

Address the Problem

- Open with "I need your help to solve a problem I'm facing."
- Define the issue by asking what happened, how it made you/them feel, and potential negative impacts.
- Remember the goal is to reach a respectful, collaborative result.

Listen to the Other Side

- Give the other person your total attention.
- Never interrupt.
- Ask clarifying questions.
- Paraphrase what you've heard.
- Use positive body language.

Manage Way to Resolution

- Gain an agreement that the problem exists.
- Identify each other's concerns and needs.
- Explore win-win solutions.
- Agree on a course of action.
- Determine how to handle missteps.
- Close on a positive note.

Surber,1994 The integration of a broad array of interventions is described in this comprehensive practical guide for those working with seriously mentally ill adults It draws on the experience of clients who struggle with severe and disabling problems in a challenging urban environment The contributors argue that psychological and practical issues are intertwined and therefore such interventions must be delivered concurrently They also emphasize that understanding and using the resources of a client s culture is critical to the successful implementation of care and that families and natural support systems are essential components of the care system Community as Partner Elizabeth T. Anderson,Judith M. McFarlane,2010-09-22 This user friendly text is presented as a handbook for students and practicing nurses who work with communities to promote health Community as Partner focuses on the essentials of practice with the community Students will find this text helpful for the many examples of working with the community as partner For over 20 years and five editions this textbook has served undergraduate RN to BS and RN to MS students and graduate students alike as a framework for professional nursing practice in the community Our intention is to keep the text basic and accessible to all who practice in the community Using this text with distance education and virtual learning with Internet resources will enrich practice in any community This sixth edition continues the philosophy of the authors by strengthening the theoretical base with new chapters on globalization and rural health All other chapters have been revised and updated from the fifth edition We continue with a series of chapters that takes the reader through the entire nursing process by using a real life community as our example The urban example is enhanced and expanded throughout the remainder of the book by selected aggregates which serve as exemplars of working with the community as partner as well Provided by publisher First Responder Trauma Recovery Guide and Workbook (First Edition) Kevin William Grant, 2021-07-14 Stress anxiety depression trauma post traumatic stress disorder PTSD bullying and burnout have all become accepted realities for first responders in the modern workplace This workbook unpacks contemporary workplace realities educates you about trauma and helps you build your personalized recovery plan for transformation recovery and healing This recovery program has eight core purposes Validate your current situation This recovery program begins by validating your experiences and breaking through any denial you may be experiencing by examining all the ways you could be traumatized at work Identify your realities Once you understand how you've been traumatized you'll learn about how trauma develops and how to break through the defenses that protect you from the painful experiences you're facing Understand workplace trauma Armed with a deeper understanding of what trauma is how it develops and how you react to trauma you will be able to identify the support you'll need to heal and recover Build your recovery team and develop your action plan Useful tools and techniques will help you connect with and build your team of support professionals and advocates Once you begin working with your team you'll start the recovery process by acquiring a set of skills and techniques to help you weather the storm and begin healing Grieve mourn and let go Recovery will take you on a journey of grieving mourning and letting go which will transport you to a new sense of calm and acceptance I'll break down this journey into the stages you'll travel through to get to the other side Maintain your recovery Finally I'll share helpful ways to maintain your recovery manage setbacks with compassion and track your progress so you can proactively navigate the inevitably choppy waters as you continue your healthy and productive recovery Adapt and adjust to the impacts of the COVID 19 Pandemic The COVID 19 global Pandemic has left a lasting impact on all our lives This section will review the Pandemic's mental health physical health and social implications with helpful tools and techniques to help you manage the trauma and stress the Pandemic brings In addition gems of wisdom and learnings within the research literature will help you navigate the Pandemic and Post Pandemic worlds effectively Learn interactively with workbook exercises Workbook exercises will help you digest the content reflect on your situation learn from that reflection and incrementally create a personalized recovery plan Each exercise in the workbook walks you through a process of self reflection and self discovery to help you understand and make sense of your situation

First Responder Careers Expose Individuals to Higher Risks of Developing Trauma

Some careers include a higher likelihood of experiencing traumatic events that can lead to the development of PTSD Serving in the military is a high risk factor for developing PTSD However combat veterans develop PTSD at different rates depending on the severity and length of exposure to traumatic experiences There are also high incidences of reported sexual harassment and sexual abuse in the military As a result the rates of PTSD are relatively high compared to the overall prevalence in the general population Not only can law enforcement officers experience direct threats and stressful conditions but they also regularly witness the devastating effects of assaults robberies kidnappings and violent events However individuals in this profession have lower than expected rates of PTSD surprisingly An estimated 20 percent overall may result from having access to counseling and rigorous pre employment screenings EMTs and paramedics are routinely exposed to life threatening incidents and have more health problems than individuals in other occupations PTSD rates in this group are as high as 20 percent PTSD prevalence in this profession is comparable to law enforcement Firefighters conduct paramedic activities and are the first responders to natural disasters Firefighting is a dangerous profession that exposes workers to stressful conditions and traumatic events ranging from threats to their safety and experiencing the devastating effects of catastrophes As a result the prevalence of PTSD in this group can be as high as 20 percent Volunteer firefighters may have even higher rates because they don't have access to the same level of support as career firefighters Healthcare workers especially those working in emergency rooms and intensive care units are also at higher risk For example nurses working in critical care units are more likely to develop PTSD than nurses in other groups In addition while senior level nurses report fewer PTSD symptoms than junior ones they report higher rates of burnout Finally healthcare workers exposed to patients that have experienced violence such as an assault victim are more likely to develop PTSD than surgeons who treat assault victims Rescue workers medical workers and volunteers who act as first responders during disasters witness the aftermath of horrific events and can even become involved in severe traumatic events The prevalence of PTSD in these individuals has been estimated to be between 15 and 30 percent Journalists who work as war correspondents are at higher risk of being injured killed or kidnapped Their lifetime prevalence of PTSD which can be as high as 30 percent reflects their lack of access to support and PTSD treatment options Transit and train operators are frequently exposed to physical threats and witness suicide incidents such as person under train events Exposure to these traumatic and threatening circumstances can be a daily or weekly occurrence Bus drivers are more prone to PTSD because they have more direct contact with the general public than train drivers locked in secure train cabs In these high risk professions the incidence of trauma declines when policies are in place to debrief victims give victims immediate access to counseling and screen for individuals at high risk of having adverse reactions to traumatic conditions
