Food for War-food for Peace Mitchel B. Wallerstein, 1980 The NGO CARE and food aid from America, 1945-80 Heike Wieters, 2017-07-21 This book provides a historical account of the NGO CARE as one of the largest humanitarian NGOs worldwide from 1945 to 1980 Readers interested in international relations and humanitarian hunger prevention are provided with fascinating insights into the economic and business related aspects of Western non governmental politics fundraising and philanthropic giving in this field Not only does the book contribute to ongoing research about the rise of NGOs in the international realm it also offers very rich empirical material on the political implications of private and governmental international aid in a world marked by the order of the Cold War decolonialization processes and the struggle of so called Third World Countries to catch up with modern Western consumer societies Food for War-food for Peace Mitchel B. Wallerstein, 1980 History of Food for Peace (Public Law 480) and Soybeans William Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi, 2021-11-16 The world's most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive subject and geographic index 26 photographs and illustrations mostly color Free of charge in digital PDF format Closing the Cereals Gap with Trade and Food Aid Barbara Huddleston, 1984-01-01 Research report on trends in food aid to developing countries and their relationship to the grain trade forecasts food requirements to meet food shortages in low income countries levels of per capita imports and the phasing out of aid to higher income countries with the end of dependence discusses the use of food aid to relieve malnutrition or for resale and the economic implications for agricultural development and foreign exchange levels Bibliography statistical tables and table Kennedy, Johnson, and the Nonaligned World Robert B. Rakove, 2013 This book examines John F Kennedy's policy of engaging states that had chosen to remain nonaligned in the Cold War On an Empty Stomach Tom Scott-Smith, 2020-04-15 On an Empty Stomach examines the practical techniques humanitarians have used to manage and measure starvation from Victorian scientific soup kitchens to space age high protein foods Tracing the evolution of these techniques since the start of the nineteenth century Tom Scott Smith argues that humanitarianism is not a simple story of progress and improvement but rather is profoundly shaped by sociopolitical conditions Aid is often presented as an apolitical and technical project but the way humanitarians conceive and tackle human needs has always been deeply influenced by culture politics and society These influences extend down to the most detailed mechanisms for measuring malnutrition and providing sustenance As Scott Smith shows over the past century the humanitarian approach to hunger has redefined food as nutrients and hunger as a medical condition Aid has become more individualized medicalized and rationalized shaped by modernism in bureaucracy commerce and food technology On an Empty Stomach focuses on the gains and losses that result examining the complex compromises that arise between efficiency of distribution and quality of care Scott Smith concludes that humanitarian groups have developed an approach to the empty stomach that is dependent on compact commercially produced devices and is often paternalistic and culturally insensitive

LBJ and the Presidential Management of Foreign Relations Paul Y. Hammond,2010-07-22 In this insightful study Paul Y Hammond an experienced analyst of bureaucratic politics adapts and extends that approach to explain and evaluate the Johnson administration s performance in foreign relations in terms that have implications for the post Cold War era The book is structured around three case studies of Johnson s foreign policy decision making The first study examines economic and political development It explores the way Johnson handled the provision of economic and food assistance to India during a crisis in India s food policies This analysis provides lessons not only for dealing with African famine in later years but also for assisting Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union The second case study focuses on U S relations with Western Europe at a time that seemed to require a major change in the NATO alliance Here Hammond illuminates the process of policy innovation particularly the costs of changing well established policies that embody an elaborate network of established interests The third case study treats the Vietnam War with special emphasis on how Johnson decided what to do about Vietnam Hammond critiques the rich scholarship available on Johnson s advisory process based on his own reading of the original sources These case studies are set in a larger context of applied theory that deals more generally with presidential management of foreign relations examining a president s potential for influence on the one hand and the constraints on his or her capacity to control and persuade on the other It will be important reading for all scholars and policymakers interested in the limits and possibilities of presidential power in the post Cold War era

Beyond Eurocentrism Peter Gran,2021-02-01 Eurocentrism influences virtually all established historical writing With the rise of Prussia and by extension Europe eurocentrism became the dominant paradigm for world history Employing the approaches of Gramsci and Foucault Peter Gran proposes a reconceptualization of world history He challenges the traditional convention of relying on totalitarian or democratic functions of a particular state to explain and understand relationships of authority and resistance in a number of national contexts Gran maintains that there is no single developmental model but diverse forms of hegemony that emerged out of the political crisis following the penetration of capitalism into each nation In making comparisons between seemingly disparate and distinctive nations and by questioning established canons of comparative inquiry Gran encourages people to recognize the similarities between the West and non West nations
