Bibliography of Agriculture ,1985 Voice and Participation in Global Food Politics Alana Mann,2019-04-05 As awareness of the commodification of food for profit at the expense of our health and the planet grows this book foregrounds the communicative dimensions of resistance by food movements Voice and participation are argued by the author to be the means through which rural and urban communities can and in many cases do resist the capture of value by corporate actors and work to democratise their foodscapes Her critical analysis of meaning making under neo liberalism suggests that agroecology as a socially activating form of agriculture within a food sovereignty framework provides an example of social learning relevant across rural urban and North South divides Embracing indigenous knowledge gender equity and postcolonial theory this approach mobilises growers and eaters to contest the power structures that shape their food environments and also to focus on social and economic justice within their communities particularly in the context of climate change Participatory ecologies that incorporate these forms of social learning encourage the co creation of inclusive foodscapes and politicise food justice Such a positive framing of resistance through horizontal pedagogy participation communication and social learning processes contrasts with the vertical dissemination structure of the corporatised food regime and takes vital steps towards a more democratic food system Voice and Participation in Global Food Politics will be of interest to scholars of agri food transdisciplinary food studies and political economy of food systems It will also be of relevance to NGOs and policymakers

Latin America ,1993 Global Activism in Food Politics A. Mann,2014-05-01 Who should provide food and through what relationships Whose livelihoods should be protected For over 20 years the peasant farmers of La Via Campesina have been engaged in the fight against injustice hunger and poverty under the banner of food sovereignty the right of peoples to healthy and culturally appropriate food produced through ecologically sound and sustainable methods and their right to define their own food and agriculture systems They campaign for healthy sustainable alternatives to an industrial food system controlled by agribusiness companies and the architects of unfair trade agreements This book draws on grounded case studies of agrarian movements in the Americas and Europe as exemplars of a power shift as local opposition scales up to global action in an effort to wrest control of our food away from transnational corporations and back to communities Handbook of Latin American Studies ,1989 Contains scholarly evaluations of books and book chapters as well as conference papers and articles published worldwide in the field of Latin American studies Covers social sciences and the humanities in alternate years School Food Politics in Mexico José Tenorio,2023-10-26

Intertwining policy analysis and ethnography Jos Tenorio examines how and why now the promotion of healthy lifestyles has been positioned as an ideal solution to obesity and how this shapes the preparation sale and consumption of food in schools in Mexico This book situates obesity as a structural problem enabled by market driven policy change problematizing the focus on individual behavior change which underpins current obesity policy It argues that the idea of healthy lifestyles draws attention away from the economic and political roots of obesity shifting blame onto an uneducated population Deploying Foucault s concept of dispositif Tenorio argues that healthy lifestyles functions as an ensemble of mechanisms to deploy representations of reality spaces institutions and subjectivities aligned with market principles constructing individuals both as culprits for what they eat and the prime locus of policy intervention to change diets He demonstrates how this ensemble enmeshes within the local cultural and economic conditions surrounding the provisioning of food in Mexican schools and how it is contested in the practices around cooking Expanding the conversation on the politics of food in schools obesity policy and dominant perspectives on the relation between food and health this book is a must read for scholars of food and nutrition public health and education as well as those with an interest in development studies and policy enactment and outcomes

Global Capitalism and the Future of Agrarian Society Arif Dirlik,Alexander Woodside,Roxann Prazniak,2015-11-17 This book offers historical and comparative analyses of changes in agrarian society forced by the globalization of capitalism and the implications of these changes for human welfare globally The book gives special attention to recent economic development and urbanization in the People s Republic of China which have had a major impact on contemporary transformations globally Case studies from South and Southeast Asia Africa and Latin America in turn place these transformations in a comparative global perspective The contributors include distinguished scholars from the UN PRC India Zimbabwe and Latin America who are also active in policy issues Food and Society William C. Whit,1995-01-01 The importance of food is undeniable Yet because it is so close and obvious we often fail to pay attention to it In Food and Society A Sociological Approach author William C Whitt attempts to develop a multi level multidisciplinary approach to the relationship between food and the larger world Organized from the experiences of food consumption through its preparation distribution storage and production this book discusses the role of food in past societies the basics of nutrition contemporary issues including body size food and culture food production world hunger and food innovation Food Politics Queenbala Marak,2014-04-11 Food and eating has always been endowed with meanings It is one of the most visible and important symbols of identity and difference uniting the members of a community and segregating them from other communities This inclusion and exclusion can be observed not only in what they eat or what they are known to eat but also how they eat how they prepare and serve their food and what happens after food is taken The study of food politics and questions of identity and difference can therefore be a means of understanding the underlying social relations in any culture and its quiescent philosophy This ethnographic work discusses the politics inherent in food among the Garos of Assam India and Bangladesh In these two areas they live as a minority and with and in the peripheries of a dominant non Garo culture Thus this book examines the ways in which Garos conceptualize themselves and the other world through the microcosm of food the most important need of all It discusses among other topics how the concepts of Garo food versus non Garo food find fruition in social reality and collective memory as an identity marker

Politics, Society, And Democracy Latin America Scott Mainwaring, 2018-02-19 This is the third of four volumes compiled in honor of Juan J Linz and edited by H E Chehabi Richard Gunther Alfred Stepan and Arturo Valenzuela Each volume presents original research and theoretical essays by Linz s distinguished collaborators students teachers and friends as well as overviews of his enormous contributions to Spanish and Latin American studies comparative politics and sociology In Volume III leading Latin American scholars evaluate Juan Linz s contribution to the study of Latin American politics in particular his influence on studies dealing with authoritarianism democratic breakdown public opinion regime transition and the institutional conditions needed for stable democracy

The Ethno-economy of Food, Drink, and Stimulants Leo J. Garofalo, 2001 Unsettling Food Politics Christopher Mayes, 2018-10-16 Over the past 25 years activists farmers and scholars have been arguing that the industrialized global food system erodes democracy perpetuates injustices undermines population health and is environmentally unsustainable In an attempt to resist these effects activists have proposed alternative food networks that draw on ideas and practices from pre industrial agrarian smallholder farming as well as contemporary peasant movements This book uses current debates over Michel Foucault s method of genealogy as a practice of critique and historical problematization of the present to reveal the historical constitution of contemporary alternative food discourses While alternative food activists appeal to food sovereignty and agrarian discourses to counter the influence of neoliberal agricultural policies these discourses remain entangled with colonial logics In particular the influence of Enlightenment ideas of improvement colonial practices of agriculture as a means to establish ownership and anthropocentric relations to the land In combination with the genealogical analysis this book brings continental political philosophy into conversation with Indigenous theories of sovereignty and alternative food discourse in order to open new spaces for thinking about food and politics in contemporary Australia

The Sociology of Food Stephen Mennell, Anne Murcott, Anneke H. van Otterloo, 1992 Provides understanding of the role of food in the contemporary world The authors explore both the empirical questions raised by the relation of food to inequality scarcity and famine and the broader theoretical issue of food as a fundamental item of consumption and cultural symbol
