Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide

Joyce Wieland Iris Nowell, 2001 Joyce Wieland triumphed over what she called obscene poverty to achieve international celebrity as a painter collagist quiltmaker and filmmaker celebrated as Canada's most important woman artist next to Emily Carr Her art portrays strikingly Canadian themes of environmental issues historical passages and aboriginal rights in buoyant satirical images To make her distinctive highly personal art Wieland uses toys paper cut outs wood glass and pieces of her panties and dresses just as boldly and felicitously as she uses oils watercolors and pencils Some of her most famous works are quilts such as Reason Over Passion and Confeds spread She made underground films long before Andy Warhol did producing a total of 16 Joyce Wieland achieved acclaim through unstinting courage vivacity and her off the wall humor She was known for tucking away her secrets in her work Author Iris Nowell has uncovered some of these secrets through primary sources such as Joyce's friends and family and through her own perspective of having known Joyce for many years This intimate rollicking poignant biography uncovers Joyce Wieland's life as she lived it intimately and fully through the 1950s Dark Ages of Art in Toronto for much of the 1960s in New York's grungy artist's loft community and the underground film scene and back to Toronto for the most productive stunning years of her life designs capture the mood of celebration and joy that characterizes this photographic record of contemporary religious works of art Chosen for their excellence in design and stitchery these works represent the achievements of artists who have created art in fabric for places of worship This book celebrates this important artistic expression a significant part of our heritage Pieces are selected from communities across Canada from a small parish on a Micmac reserve in Nova Scotia to a large urban synagogue in Vancouver from the igloo shaped cathedral in Iqaluit to a suburban church nestled beside a wildlife march in southwestern Ontario

Changing Women, Changing History Diana Pederson,1996-10-15 Changing Women Changing History is a bibliographic guide to the scholarship both English and French on Canadian s women s history Organized under broad subject headings and accompanied by author and subject indices it is accessible and comprehensive

Shaped by the West Wind Claire Elizabeth Campbell,2005 Claire Campbell draws from recent work in cultural history landscape studies in geography and art history and environmental history to explore what happens when external agendas confront local realities a story central to the Canadian experience Explorers fishers artists and park planners all were forced to respond to the unique contours of this inland sea their encounters defined a regional identity even as they constructed a popular image for the Bay in the national imagination Jacket Saturday Night ,1990 Fools and Jesters in Literature, Art, and History Vicki K. Janik,1998-05-21 Jesters and fools have existed as important and consistent figures in nearly all cultures Sometimes referred to as clowns they are typological characters who have conventional roles in the arts often using nonsense to subvert existing order But fools are also a part of social and religious history and they frequently play key roles in the rituals that support and shape a society s system of beliefs This reference book includes alphabetically arranged entries for approximately 60 fools and jesters from a wide range of cultures Included are entries for performers from American popular culture such as Woody Allen Mae West Charlie Chaplin and the Marx Brothers literary characters such as Shakespeare s Falstaff Rabelais Gargantua and Pantagruel and Singer s Gimpel and cultural and mythological figures such as India s Birbal the American circus clown the Native American Coyote Taishu Engeki of Japan Hephaestus Loki the Norse fool schlimiels and schlimazels and the drag queen The entries written by expert contributors are critical as well as informative Each begins with a biographical artistic religious or historical background section which places the subject within a larger cultural and historical context A description and analysis follow This section may include a discussion of the fool s appearance gender role ethical and moral roles social function and relationship to such themes as nature time and mortality The entry then discusses the critical reception of the subject and concludes with an extensive bibliography of general works

Canadian Saturday Night ,1990 Jacob Campo Weyerman and his Collection of Artists' Biographies Lyckle de Vries,2020-02-25 Weyerman s collection of artists biographies 1729 is exceptional for three reasons Firstly he includes a great number of painters not mentioned elsewhere Secondly he does not limit his selection to good artists only he also discusses failed painters and their abortive careers Thirdly he writes as an art critic who does not hesitate to pass judgments sometimes severe on his chosen subjects In the process Weyerman provides much information on the social and economic circumstances of art production He found that a bohemian lifestyle was pernicious to a painter s career and argued that artists should live and think as merchants In addition to analyzing Weyerman s art critical terminology and his ideas on art theory De Vries includes translations of two full chapters along with the original Dutch

Poole's Index to Periodical Literature: 1892-1896 William Frederick Poole,1897 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1879 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1892 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries
