

The Food of Paradise

By: Ibn Amjed

Background of the Literary Piece:

The Food of Paradise is made by Ibn Amjed, one of the most influential writers in the field of Arabian Literature. The story is considered as one of the most important masterpieces made. It tackles about the story of hope and faith in which deals with the divinity and religious beliefs towards Allah. This may be because of the culture on the Arabic lands whereas Allah is considered a great figure towards them. They have high respects on him and, thus, relating many stories that can be associated by his majestic ness. It teaches also about conduct and how it the beliefs of the Moslem religion can be associated with each other. It is an evident fact because in the short story it mentions one of the teachings in the Qur'an wherein it states this passage:

"O Compassionate One, isn't this unjust? Why should Thy servant be burdened like an ass in the marketplace, which carries two panniers both filled to the top and stumbles at every blow of the driver's stick? Isn't it promised in the Koran, Allah will not anyone starve?"
