Buton's History of Buddhism in India and Its Spread to Tibet Buton Richen Drup, 2013-08-20 This 14th century lively history introduces basic Buddhism as practiced throughout India and Tibet and describes the process of entering the Buddhist path through study and reflection In the first chapter we read about the structure of Buddhist education and the range of its subjects and we are treated to a rousing litany of the merits of such instruction In the second chapter Buton introduces us to the buddhas of our world and among three of whom have already lived taught and passed into transcendence before examining in detail the fourth our own Buddha Shakyamuni Buton tells the story of Shakyamuni in his past lives then presents the path the Buddha followed the same that all historical buddhas including future ones must follow Only at the conclusion of the discussion of the result enlightenment do we return to the specific case of the Buddha and his twelve deeds This marks the start of the history of the Buddha as most of us imagine it After the Buddha's story Buton recounts three compilations of Buddhist scriptures and then quotes from sacred texts that foretell the lives and contributions of great Indian Buddhist masters which he then relates The chapter concludes with the tale of the Buddhist doctrine's eventual demise and disappearance a concept and a tale squarely within the Mahayana The final chapter the shortest of the three gives an account of the inception and spread of Buddhism in Tibet focused mainly on the country's kings and early adopters of the foreign faith The watershed debate at Samye Monastery between representatives of Chinese and Indian styles of Buddhist practice is given the most attention in this chapter An afterword by Ngawang Zangpo one of the translators discusses and contextualizes Buton's exemplary life his turbulent times and his prolific works

Travels in the Netherworld Bryan J. Cuevas, 2008-04-02 In Travels in the Netherworld Bryan J

Cuevas examines a fascinating but little known genre of Tibetan narrative literature about the d lok ordinary men and women who claim to have died traveled through hell and then returned from the afterlife These narratives enjoy audiences ranging from the most sophisticated monastic scholars to pious townsfolk villagers and nomads Their accounts emphasize the universal Buddhist principles of impermanence and worldly suffering the fluctuations of karma and the feasibility of obtaining a favorable rebirth through virtue and merit Providing a clear detailed analysis of four vivid return from death tales including the stories of a Tibetan housewife a lama a young noble woman and a Buddhist monk Cuevas argues that these narratives express ideas about death and the afterlife that held wide currency among all classes of faithful Buddhists in Tibet Relying on a diversity of traditional Tibetan sources Buddhist canonical scriptures scholastic textbooks ritual and meditation manuals and medical treatises in addition to the d lok works themselves Cuevas surveys a broad range of popular Tibetan Buddhist ideas about death and dying He explores beliefs about the vulnerability of the soul and its journey beyond death karmic retribution and the terrors of hell the nature of demons and demonic possession ghosts and reanimated corpses Cuevas argues that these extraordinary accounts exhibit flexibility between social and religious categories that are conventionally polarized and concludes that contrary to the accepted wisdom such rigid divisions as elite and folk monastic and lay religion are not sufficiently representative of traditional Tibetan Buddhism on the ground This study offers innovative perspectives on popular religion in Tibet and fills a gap in an important field of Tibetan literature

Knowledge, Book Six, Parts One and Two Jamgon Kongtrul Lodro Taye, 2013-01-08 Jamgon Kongtrul's encyclopedic Treasury of Knowledge presents a complete account of the major lines of thought and practice that comprise Tibetan Buddhism. Among the ten books that make up this tour de force, Book Six is by far the longest, concisely summarizing the theoretical fields of knowledge to be studied prior to the cultivation of reflection and discriminative awareness. The first two parts of Book Six, contained in this volume, respectively concern Indo-Tibetan classical learning and Buddhist phenomenology. The former analyzes the traditional subjects of phonology and Sanskrit grammar, logic, fine art, and medicine, along with astrology, poetics, prosody, synonymics, and dramaturgy. The principal non-Buddhist philosophical systems of ancient India are then summarized and contrasted with the hierarchical meditative concentrations and formless absorptions through which the summit of cyclic existence can genuinely be attained. Part Two examines the phenomenological structures of Abhidharma, the shared inheritance of all Buddhist traditions, from three distinct perspectives corresponding to the three successive turnings of the doctrinal wheel.

The History of China, The Life and Revelations of Pema Lingpa, 2003-07-31 These fascinating discussions between 11th-century court ladies and the great master Padmasambhava, available for the first time in English, weave intriguing issues of gender into Buddhist teachings. The women's doubts and hesitations are masterfully resolved in these impassioned exchanges. The wonderful material in this book is part of a terma treasure revealed by Pema Lingpa (1450-1521), the greatest tertön treasure revealer of the Himalayan kingdom of Bhutan. The pithy collection is rounded out by Pema Lingpa's astonishing life story.

The Buddha's Single Intention Jan-Ulrich Sobisch, 2020-04-14 The definitive presentation of one of the most unique and compelling works of classical Tibetan literature. This book presents an influential and extraordinary teaching of the Kagy tradition of Tibetan Buddhism, known as the Single Intention, by the master Drigung Jikten Sumgön (1143-1217), along with its chief commentaries, principally the Light of the Sun by Rikzin Chökyi Drakpa (1595-1659). Early in the history of the Kagy school, the teachings of Jikten Sumg n were condensed into 150 core formulations called vajra statements. These pithy revelatory statements comprise the Single Intention Dgongs gcig which presents the thought of the Buddha and the nature of the ineffable brjod du med pa in concise and direct expression. The Single Intention weaves the thread of ineffable mahamudra through the entire fabric of Buddhism. It presents mahamudra as pervading disciplined conduct, meditative concentration and discriminative knowledge, ground, path and result, view, practice and conduct, and the three vows of pratimoksa of the bodhisattvas and of mantra. Jikten Sumg n teaches how the fundamental values and insights revealed by the Buddha are woven into reality and therefore accessible to all. Jan Ulrich Sobisch manages to convey the unity of the Buddha's message both in its particulars and in its scope. His deep and authoritative skill makes this the definitive presentation of one of the most unique and compelling works of classical Tibetan literature.
