

When we tried to figure out guidelines in education, we couldn't find a practical overview of the subject. We invited experts to lecture to groups, but somehow it didn't help.

Well, Margaret had the best we could find, and all went well until we moved. The school near our new home turned out to be a blight on our youngster's life. Why? One reason was that the program of learning just didn't fit this particular child. Although we hadn't been able to organize an overall understanding of the subject, by now we were experienced enough parents to realize that something was badly wrong; drastic action had to be taken. We took Margaret out of school. Suddenly our child revived. She read books, played in the garden, worked alongside of us, enjoyed music. But an inspector didn't feel this education was satisfactory. Margaret should be in school. At that time, we didn't realize that he was wrong. The law in England allows for "education otherwise than at school." Eleven years later, Margaret's younger brother and sister were able to enjoy home-based education. But at that earlier time we sadly accepted that in the law's eyes "education" equals a schoolroom. In this case it meant two frustrating years, with forty children to one teacher. Was this what a child's life was meant to be? A drive to a closed-off cement area, a crowded room, a day so tiring that at the end Margaret and her younger sister came home taut with exhaustion?

We did the best we could in the hours spent away from school. But our prayers were becoming pretty desperate. And then, unexpectedly, the answer came.

The end of that story must wait to be told later in this book. Suffice it to say that the answers came when we found a little school run in a cottage. After our children went there, we realized that here was something really different. What was it? It seemed that
