For And Against Public Issues In Australia:

Politics, Social Issues and the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup Danielle Sarver Coombs, Molly Yanity, 2025-05-16

This book takes a close look at politics and social issues in the context of the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup one of the most attended women's sporting events in history Featuring the work of leading researchers from around the world the book is arranged into two thematic sections with the first examining power structures and inequalities and the second exploring nationalism identities and experiencing the women's game The book presents a series of important and fascinating cases including campaigns for equal pay for players governance ethics and women's rights in Spanish football the legacies of the Australian Matildas and the impact of fan spaces that together form a multi-layered picture of a signature event in the history of women's sport This book is vital reading for anybody with an interest in women's sport gender and sport the sociology of sport the politics of sport event studies or sport business and management Australian National Bibliography, 1978

Critical Reflections on Australian Public Policy John Wanna, 2009-05-01 This collection of critical reflections on Australian public policy offers a valuable contribution to public discussion of important political and policy issues facing our nation and society These essays are important not only because of the reputation and position of the various contributors but because they are incredibly content rich and brimming with new ideas Importance of United Public Opinion on

Public Issues James Edward Murray, 1951 Strangling Aunty: Perilous Times for the Australian Broadcasting Corporation

Virginia Small, 2021-09-24 Drawing on a wealth of academic research statistics and interviews with key Australian media people including present and former Australian Broadcasting Corporation staffers this book explores the transitions of the ABC under various types of organisational re-strategising governance and political shifts The book provides the reader with an authoritative narrative as to how the ABC has lost its iconic status in Australian society and unfolds how the ABC has strayed from its respected public charter which endowed the ABC with a distinctive and important role in informing educating and entertaining the Australian public Successive federal government funding cuts have shrunk staffing levels and services while it has pursued a corporatist model that mimics the trappings and practices of commercial media In that process it has become politicised and trivialised thereby threatening its demise The book is a unique and timely contribution at a time of dwindling interest for the funding of public assets everywhere There is no other book in the market that addresses the decline of the organisation the ABC and analyses the reasons for its demise within an organisational theoretical framework The book is written for an educated general audience with academics and media practitioners specifically in mind and has everyday applications for business organisations operating in the public sector by bringing together important findings of public funding budgets management and organisational strategies and evolution challenge of reform      Property Law: Current Issues and Debates Paul Jackson, David C. Wilde, 2018-12-20 Published in 1999 Questions of human rights changes in social structures economic climates and technological developments all impact on property law This edited collection provides an in depth analysis of present law and practical proposals for the future written by the foremost international figures in the field from a variety of theoretical and professional backgrounds      Social Issues in Contemporary Native America Hilary N. Weaver, 2016-04-01 Hilary Weaver has drawn together leading Native American social workers researchers and academics to provide current information on a variety of social issues related to Native American children families and reservations both in the USA and in Canada Divided into four major sections each containing an introduction this book places the historical foundations of Native American social work in context in order to fully provide the reader with a comprehensive survey on various aspects of working with Native American families community health and wellness and community revitalization and decolonization This groundbreaking volume should be read by both educators and students in social work and other helping professions in the USA and Canada as well as all human service professionals working with Native Americans      Australian Dictionary of Biography, Volume 19 Melanie Nolan, 2021-03-09 Volume 19 of the Australian Dictionary of Biography ADB contains concise biographies of individuals who died between 1991 and 1995 The first of two volumes for the 1990s it presents a colourful montage of late twentieth century Australian life containing the biographies of significant and representative Australians The volume is still in the shadow of World War II with servicemen and women who enlisted young appearing but these influences are dimming and there are now increasing numbers of non white non male non privileged and non straight subjects The 680 individuals recorded in volume 19 of the ADB include Wiradjuri midwife and Ngannawal Elder Violet Bulger Aboriginal rights activist poet playwright and artist Kevin Gilbert and Torres Strait Islander community leader and land rights campaigner Eddie Mabo HIV AIDS child activists Tony Lovegrove and Eve Van Grafhorst have entries as does conductor Stuart Challender the first Australian celebrity to go public about his HIV AIDS condition in 1991 The arts are as always well represented including writers Frank Hardy Mary Durack and Nene Gare actors Frank Thring and Leonard Teale and arts patron Ian Potter We are beginning to see the effects of the steep rise in postwar immigration flow through to the ADB Artist Joseph Stanislaw Ostoja Kotkowski was born in Poland Pilar Moreno de Otaegui co founded the Spanish Club of Sydney Chinese restaurateur and community leader Ming Poon Dick Low migrated to Victoria in 1953 Often we have a dearth of information about the domestic lives of our subjects politician Olive Zakharov however bravely disclosed at the Victorian launch of the federal government s campaign to Stop Violence Against Women in 1993 that she was a survivor of domestic violence in her second marriage Take a dip into the many fascinating lives of the Australian Dictionary of Biography      Greenhouse: Planning for Climate Change GI Pearman, 1988-01-01 It is important for the reader to understand clearly the objectives of these papers They are not an attempt to provide accurate predictions of what is going to happen in Australia over the next few decades Rather they represent sensitivity studies designed to illustrate to what extent we as a nation are dependent on the climate and likely to be affected by climatic change and attempts to develop the techniques for such sensitivity analyses For this the climate scenario reproduced in the Appendix to this volume was a key

Statist ,1910 Heritage, Culture and Rights Andrea Durbach, Lucas Lixinski, 2017-05-18 Cultural heritage law and its response to human rights principles and practice has gained renewed prominence on the international agenda The recent conflicts in Syria and Mali China's use of shipwreck sites and underwater cultural heritage to make territorial claims and the cultural identities of nations post conflict highlight this field as an emerging global focus In addition it has become a forum for the configuration and contestation of cultural heritage rights and the broader politics of international law The manifestation of tensions between heritage and human rights are explored in this volume in particular in relation to heritage and rights in collaboration and in conflict and heritage as a tool for rights advocacy This volume also explores these issues from a distinctively legal standpoint considering the extent to which the legal tools of international human rights law facilitate or hinder heritage protection Covering a range of issues across Africa Asia Europe Latin America and Australia this volume will be of interest to people working in human rights heritage studies cultural heritage management and identity politics around the world This book fills an important gap in the literature on heritage and rights and in particular human rights law With articles from leading experts addressing the legal human rights dimensions of cultural heritage protection it makes a significant contribution to debates over issues such as Why should we safeguard heritage and for whom and What is the relationship between heritage safeguarding and protecting human rights These are deep questions of profound significance to individuals communities and even nations around the world and are of increasing urgency today It critically analyses the relationship between heritage and human rights that can be potentially pernicious as well as mutually reinforcing placing this analysis within the wider context and with a broad geographical scope with examinations of the heritage rights relationship in Southeast Asia Cambodia China and sub Saharan Africa Dr Janet Blake Associate Professor in Law Shahid Beheshti University Tehran Traversing the destruction of mausoleums in Timbuktu to war crimes trial by the International Criminal Court Heritage Culture and Rights explores the crucial links between human rights and the protection of cultural heritage The essays are accessible to all viewing the destruction of cultural heritage as a breach of human dignity and identity Unputdownable Professor Gillian Triggs President of the Australian Human Rights Commission This collection of essays by leading scholars though primarily Australian in origin is universal in orientation Ranging from a broad survey of the applicable laws of armed conflict to a detailed consideration of urban design in Southeast Asia the essays offer significant insights into the relationship between the protection and use of cultural heritage on one hand and fundamental human rights on the other Ultimately the mutual reinforcement of the two disciplines of law prevails over carefully acknowledged tensions between them Readers at all levels of expertise will find the book of great interest Professor James Nafziger Thomas B Stoel Professor of Law and Director of
