For Love of the Automobile Wolfgang Sachs,2023-12-22 In his cultural analysis of the motor car in Germany Wolfgang Sachs starts from the assumption that the automobile is more than a means of transportation and that its history cannot be understood merely as a triumphant march of technological innovation Instead Sachs examines the history of the automobile from the late 1880s until today for evidence on the nature of dreams and desires embedded in modern culture Written in a lively style and illustrated by a wealth of cartoons advertisements newspaper stories and propaganda this book explores the nature of Germany s love affair with the automobile A history of our desires for speed wealth violence glamour progress and power as refracted through images of the automobile it is at once fascinating and provocative Sachs recounts the development of the automobile industry and the impact on German society of the marketing and promotion of the motor car As cars became more affordable and more common after World War II advertisers fanned the competition for status refining their techniques as ownership became ever more widespread Sachs concludes by demonstrating that the triumphal procession of private motorization has in fact become an intrusion The grand dreams once attached to the automobile have aged Sachs appeals for the cultivation of new dreams born of the futility of the old ones dreams of a society liberated from progress in which location distance and speed are reconceived in more appropriately humane dimensions In his cultural analysis of the motor car in Germany Wolfgang Sachs starts from the assumption that the automobile is more than a means of transportation and that its history cannot be understood merely as a triumphant march of technological innovation Live Stock Journal ,1921 But Not for Love Edwin Shrake,2000 This Texas Traditions Series reprint takes us back to the Lone Star State during the Cold War at the beginning of the 1960s The postwar generation is in a frenzy of high living and profligate spending Big Texas oil is still subsidized by a federal depletion allowance and cattle still account for much of the state s wealth But these longtime mainstays of Texas finance are giving way to transistors and computers A new millionaire class is growing up around business mergers and electronic technology The characters in Shrake s novel are caught in this brave new world in one way or another Some are the princes of prosperity others are victims of it This is a world of lobbyists merger lawyers small time politicians sons of oil money and the women who cheer them on or worry about their souls In the opening section of the novel we visit the Texas Gulf Coast and see the machinations of Sam Guthrie and Waddy Morris Jr as they attempt to take over a rival technology company Back in Dallas idealistic attorney Ben Carpenter moves to thwart the Guthrie Morris takeover Then we move to Fort Worth and attend the drunken party given in honor of Ben Carpenter s thirtieth birthday The party moved to Mexico on Cadmus Wilkins s bus where everyone has to confront his or her inner self And some are found wanting The several vignettes of the novel paint an accurate picture of Texas as it moves into the urban era and as its middle class began deserting the old verities and tasting what were once forbidden pleasures Shrake is a first rate stylist who knows how the upper half lives For Love of a Bedouin Maid le Voleur,2014-12-23 Example in this ebook That will do place the cigars upon the table and then you can go The speaker was Lord Throgmorten a man of about thirty six years of age rather stout with reddish hair and whiskers and cold steel gray eyes He had just returned from a yachting cruise upon which he had started upon his succession to the title about eighteen months before The scene was his lordship s chambers in the Albany and the time the night of the 22nd of July 1893 Besides the speaker and the well trained servant who in obedience to the order just given occupied himself in fetching the silver cigar box from its accustomed place upon the sideboard lighting the wax taper which stood by its side and placing them in front of his master there were present two other persons The man on his host s right near the fireplace wearing spectacles and with the careworn look upon his features was Mr Percival Phelps who had been his lordship s guest upon their recent cruise He was a genial dapper little man with inordinate vanity and a slight stammer when excited with no income to speaking of saving his stipend as a permanent clerk in the Office a position that his host said suited him down to the ground. The man facing him and looking towards the window though younger than either of the other two was already coming into prominent notice and making a fair income as sub editor of that popular paper The Telescope. When the servant had left the room the young man proceeded to address his host in measured tones. Since I received your letter I have been on tenterhooks to hear the story of this wonderful discovery. You wrote me only a bare line from Southampton on the 12th to say that you had had a pleasant trip during which you had chanced on a most extraordinary find and that you particularly wanted me to dine with you to night and hear about it. Well now the man's gone you can fire off your intelligence. What is it coins fossils bones or buried treasure. And the editor refilling his glass with port which he knew by experience was particularly good settled himself in his chair in a less constrained attitude and prepared to listen to his host's narration. Lord Throgmorton's reply was to rise from the table and with Mr Phelps aid to bring from the further end of the room a box covered with a cloth whose weight judging from the efforts required to lift it was considerable. There said his lordship reseating himself that is the discovery and that pointing to Mr Phelps who like his host panting from his exertions had resumed his seat is the discoverer. The story first. Tell the story said that gentleman stammering in his excitement while Lord Throgmorton prepared to remove the cover. The latter acceded to the suggestion and began as follows addressing his remarks to the editor while Phelps sat by giving confirmatory nods by way of emphasis when occasion seemed to call for it. You are aware that last February twelvemonth Phelps and myself started for Australia in my steam yacht the Osprey for the purpose of visiting my property out there. With our voyage out my story has nothing to do it was only when we had turned our nose homewards and on the 17th June that our adventure began. On that night we were sailing not steaming mind because there was a fair wind and we wished to save our coal. To be continued in this ebook Looking for Love Cynthia Breeding, 2025-08-04.
