

Extranets

- Connect several intranets via the Internet, by adding a security mechanism and some additional functionalities
- They form a larger virtual network that allows remote users (such as business partners or mobile employees) to securely connect over the Internet to the enterprise's main intranet.
- Extranets are also employed by two or more enterprises (suppliers & buyers) to share information in a controlled fashion, and therefore they play a major role in the development of business-to-business electronic commerce and Supply Chain systems.
