Theology and Survival Movies Ioan Buteanu,2023-03-03 This book provides an innovative analysis of the survival movie genre from an Orthodox Christian anthropological perspective Grounded in the Orthodox tradition the approach builds from the first chapter of Genesis where man is described as made in the image and after the likeness of God It offers a nuanced theological exploration of the concept of the survival movie and examines a number of significant cinematic creations illustrating how issues of survival intersect romantic Western science fiction and war films The author reflects on how survival movies offer a path for the study of human nature given they depict people in crisis situations where they may reveal their true characters As well as discussing the role of a limit situation as a narrative element the book highlights the spiritual aspect of survival and points to the common hope in survival movies for something more than biological survival It is valuable reading for scholars working in the field of religion and film Deep Focus (Engaging Culture) Robert K. Johnston,Craig Detweiler,Kutter Callaway,2019-03-19 Three media experts guide the Christian moviegoer into a theological conversation with movies in this up to date readable introduction to Christian theology and film Building on the success of Robert Johnston's Reel Spirituality the leading textbook in the field for the past 17 years Deep Focus helps film lovers not only watch movies critically and theologically but also see beneath the surface of their moving images The book discusses a wide variety of classic and contemporary films and is illustrated with film stills from favorite movies

Screw Business As Usual Richard Branson, 2017-04-04 From the trailblazing founder and CEO of the Virgin Group a powerful argument for using business to make a positive impact in the world Richard Branson one of the world's most famous and admired business leaders argues that it's time to turn capitalism upside down to shift our values from an exclusive focus on profit to also caring for people communities and the planet As he writes My message is a simple one business as usual isn't working In fact it's business as usual that's wrecking our planet Resources are being used up the air the sea the land are all heavily polluted The poor are getting poorer Many are dying of starvation or because they can't afford a dollar a day for life saving medicine Prophesying doom and gloom is simply not my style I think business can help fix things and create a more prosperous world for everyone I happen to believe in business because I believe that business can be a force for good By that I mean doing good is good for business Screw Business as Usual shows how easy it is for both businesses and individuals to embark on a whole new way of doing things solving major problems and turning our work into something we both love and are proud of

Movies and Midrash Wendy I. Zierler, 2017-08-15 Finalist for the 2017 National Jewish Book Award in Modern Jewish Thought and Experience presented by the Jewish Book Council Movies and Midrash uses cinema as a springboard to discuss central Jewish texts and matters of belief A number of books have drawn on films to explicate Christian theology and belief but Wendy I Zierler is the first to do so from a Jewish perspective exploring what Jewish tradition text and theology have to say about the lessons and themes arising from influential and compelling films The book uses the method of inverted midrash while classical rabbinical midrash begins with exegesis of a verse and then introduces a mashal parable as a means of further explication Zierler turns that process around beginning with the culturally familiar cinematic parable and then analyzing related Jewish texts Each chapter connects a secular film to a different central theme in classical Jewish sources or modern Jewish thought Films covered include The Truman Show truth Memento memory Crimes and Misdemeanors sin Magnolia confession and redemption The Descendants birthright Forrest Gump cleverness and simplicity and The Hunger Games creation of humanity in God's image among others
