Committee on Foreign Relations, 1945 Beyond Climate Breakdown Peter Friederici, 2023-10-10 The importance of telling new climate stories stories that center the persistence of life itself that embrace comedy and radical hope How dare you asked teenage climate activist Greta Thunberg at the United Nations in 2019 How dare the world s leaders fiddle around the edges when the world is on fire Why is society unable to grasp the enormity of climate change In Beyond Climate Breakdown Peter Friederici writes that the answer must come in the form of a story and that our miscomprehension of the climate crisis comes about because we have been telling the wrong stories These stories are pervasive they come from long narrative traditions sanctioned by capitalism Hollywood and social media and they revolve around a myth that the nation exists primarily as a setting for a certain kind of economic activity Stories are how we make sense of the world and our place in it The story that the economy takes priority over everything else may seem foreordained but Friederici explains actually reflect choices made by specific people out of self interest So we need new stories stories that center the persistence of life rather than of capitalism stories that embrace contradiction and complexity We can create new stories based on comedy and radical hope Comedy never says no hope sprouts like a flower in cracked concrete These attitudes require a new way of thinking an adaptive attitude toward life that slips the narrow yoke of definition Nationalism and National Identities Martin Bulmer, John Solomos, 2014-01-02 Nationalism and nationalist ideas are a major force in the contemporary world This volume brings together original papers from a number of countries dealing both with theories and case studies of particular national contexts Taken together these papers shed light on the processes through which nationalist sentiments and ideas are articulated and given social and political meaning in specific situations They cover a broad range of different kinds of nationalist movements and ideologies

using a variety of theoretical perspectives and based on varying empirical methodologies The cases covered include a comparison of Bosnia Herzegovina and the North Caucasus the role of religion in nationalist sentiment in Spain ethnicity and nationalism in Turkey Basque nationalism the Basque diaspora across the Atlantic the patrimonial state and inter ethnic conflict in Nigeria and nationalist movements in Uzbekistan and Tajikistan Though this is the empirical focus all chapters raise relevant theoretical questions and challenge differing approaches to the phenomenon of nationalism in the social sciences This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies
