Marcia Muller and the Female Private Eye Alexander N. Howe,Christine A. Jackson,2008-09-08 In 1977

Marcia Muller invaded the all male domain of detective literature and within a decade was established as the mother of the female hardboiled private eye She is now the author of four detective series including the critically acclaimed Sharon McCone series of more than two dozen novels This collection critically assesses Marcia Muller s writing and reevaluates current critical views on women s detective fiction in general In the first two of the book s three sections essays explore Muller s engagement with modern and postmodern feminism ethnicity and the socially underprivileged The third section focuses on one of Muller s major themes the trauma of history Drawing from the feminist historicist mythic psychoanalytic and cultural approaches found in all three sections the conclusion offers a panoramic perspective on Muller s accomplishments

Buddhism in the Global Eye John S. Harding, Victor Sogen Hori, Alexander Soucy, 2020-03-05
Buddhism in the Global Eye focuses on the importance of a global context and transnational connections for understanding Buddhist modernizing movements It also explores how Asian agency has been central to the development of modern Buddhism and provides theoretical reflections that seek to overcome misleading East West binaries Using case studies from China Japan Vietnam India Tibet Canada and the USA the book introduces new research that reveals the permeable nature of certain categories such as modern global and contemporary Buddhism In the book contributors recognize the multiple nodes of intra Asian and global influence For example monks travelled among Asian countries creating networks of information and influence mutually stimulating each other s modernization movements The studies demonstrate that in modernization movements Asian reformers mobilized all available cultural resources both to adapt local forms of Buddhism to a new global context and to shape new foreign concepts to local Asian forms

The Evil Eye in the Bible and in Rabbinic Literature Rivka Ulmer, 1994 Jewish belief in the power of the evil eye aroused and energized by emotions such as jealousy and mean spiritedness has been a common concern in Jewish life from earliest times The everpresent fear of its malevolent power is expressed by the common Yiddish expression kein ahoro which means literally without an evil eye Kein ahoro is intended to ward off any potential evil eye when one speaks of one s favorable prospects Sephardic Jews have been concerned with it as well and like the Ashkenazim their Jewish ritual life has incorporated ways of protecting against it Dr Ulmer s book examines this idea in its many permutations in Rabbinic literature In particular she examines its origin in people s negative emotions and its effects on its victims in many phases of life in causing death and sickness for example or its role in sexual transgression etc The

Angel of Death is depicted as having many eyes and early Jewish mystical literature depicts angels in general as covered with eyes On the other hand the good eye has many positive meanings and these are discussed as well Dr Ulmer's study provides the reader with a complete view of the numerous symbolic meanings which this most important sense organ has been given in Jewish culture Book Jacket

Booze and the Private Eye Rita Elizabeth Rippetoe, 2015-01-24 The hard bitten PI with a bottle of bourbon in his desk drawer it's an image as old as the genre of hard boiled detective fiction itself Alcohol has long been an important element of detective fiction but it is no mere prop Rather the treatment of alcohol within the works informs and illustrates the detective's moral code and casts light upon the society's attitudes towards drink This examination of the role of alcohol in hard boiled detective fiction begins with the genre's birth in an era strongly influenced and affected by prohibition and follows both the genre's development and its relation to our changing understanding of and attitudes towards alcohol and alcoholism It discusses the works of Dashiell Hammett Raymond Chandler Mickey Spillane Robert B Parker Lawrence Sanders Marcia Muller Karen Kijewski and Sue Grafton There are bibliographies of both the primary and critical texts and an index of authors and works
