Ezra Pound: Poet A. David Moody, 2014-09-25 The long awaited second volume of A David Moody's critically acclaimed three part biography of Ezra Pound weaves together the illuminating story of his life his achievements as a poet and a composer and his one man crusade for economic justice The years 1921-1939 were the most productive of Pound's career In the 1920s Paris he was among the leading figures of the avant garde and in that ambience he composed an opera made original contributions to the theory of harmony and wrote the first thirty cantos of his great epic Moody explores this creativity in fascinating detail examining the environment that allowed for some of Pound's greatest work This period also brought Pound's politics firmly into view and Moody is able to shed new light on his sympathy for Mussolini's Fascism his invoking Confucian China as a model of responsible government and his abiding commitment to the democratic values of the American Constitution Pound is revealed as a great poet and a flawed idealist caught up in the turmoil of his darkening time and struggling sometimes blindly and in error and self contradiction to be a force for enlightenment      Ezra Pound as Literary Critic Emeritus Professor K K Ruthven, K. Through Other Continents Wai Chee Dimock, 2008-10-20 What we call American literature is quite often a shorthand a simplified name for an extended tangle of relations This is the argument of Through Other Continents Wai Chee Dimock s sustained effort to read American literature as a subset of world literature Inspired by an unorthodox archive ranging from epic traditions in Akkadian and Sanskrit to folk art paintings by Veronese and Tiepolo and the music of the Grateful Dead Dimock constructs a long history of the world a history she calls deep time The civilizations of Mesopotamia India Egypt China and West Africa as well as Europe leave their mark on American literature which looks dramatically different when it is removed from a strictly national or English language context Key authors such as Thoreau Margaret Fuller Ezra Pound Robert Lowell Gary Snyder Leslie Silko Gloria Naylor and Gerald Vizenor are transformed in this light Emerson emerges as a translator of Islamic culture Henry James s novels become long distance kin to Gilgamesh and Black English loses its ungrammaticalness when reclassified as a creole tongue meshing the input from Africa Europe and the Americas Throughout Dimock contends that American literature is answerable not to the nation state but to the human species as a whole and that it looks dramatically different when removed from a strictly national or English language context
