W H Blake John Glassco Philip Stratford Joyce Marshall Patricia Claxton Doug Jones Sheila Fischman Ray Ellenwood Barbara Godard Susanne de Lotbiniere Harwood John Van Burek and Linda Gaboriau into the complex world of literary translation Each essay portrait examines why they chose to translate and what linguistic and cultural challenges they have faced in the practice of their art Following their relationships with authors and publishers the translators also reveal how they have defined the goals and the process of literary translation Containing original detailed biographical and bibliographical material Writing between the Lines offers many new insights into the literary translation process and the diverse roles of the translator as social agent The first text on Canadian translators it makes a major contribution in the areas of literary translation comparative literature Canadian literature and cultural studies Prejudice and Pride Damien-Claude Belanger, 2011-01-22 As a country with enormous economic military and cultural power the United States can seem an overwhelming neighbour one that demands consideration by politicians thinkers and cultural figures Prejudice and Pride examines and compares how English and French Canadian intellectuals viewed American society from 1891 to 1945 Based on over five hundred texts drawn largely from the era s periodical literature the study reveals that English and French Canadian intellectuals shared common preoccupations with the United States though the English tended to emphasize political issues and the French cultural issues Damien Claude Belanger s in depth analysis of anti American sentiment during this era divides Canadian thinkers less along language lines and more according to their political stance as right wing left wing or centrist Significantly the era s discourse regarding American life and the Canadian American relationship was less an expression of nationalism or a reaction to US policy than it was about the expression of wider attitudes concerning modernity
