Far From Heaven:

So Far from Heaven Richard Bradford, 1973 Story of the Tafoya clan a Chicano family with a flair for misadventure The Tafoyas include a physician philosopher a radical daughter with a degree from Bryn Mawr a clumsy stupid son and a governor of New Mexico

Far from Heaven Todd Haynes, 2003 Collected in this volume are three highly acclaimed screenplays from one of today's most provocative writer-directors With exquisite subtlety all three films demonstrate Haynes's concerns as a pioneer of the new queer cinema who is winning increasing acceptance by the American mainstream Los Angeles Magazine, 2002-12 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award-winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian

Far From Heaven John Gill, 2019-07-25 Todd Haynes's 2002 film Far From Heaven has been hailed as a homage to 1950s Hollywood melodrama although anyone tempted to take the film at face value should be warned that it aims to subvert as much as celebrate that genre Impeccably constructed with a care for detail unknown in films from the era it sets out to make key themes from the genre romance across racial barriers and class lines and perhaps the period's greatest taboo romance between members of the same sex utterly explicit when half a century ago those themes had to be encoded in allusion and metaphor Haynes took as his main source Douglas Sirk's 1955 classic All That Heaven Allows although Far From Heaven also references Rainer Werner Fassbinder's bleak portrayal of inter-racial love Fear Eats the Soul 1974 In the context of Haynes's background in the New Queer Cinema movement with films such as Superstar Poison and safe this admixture makes Far From Heaven a rather more complex film than just another well-dressed period pastiche John Gill provides a revealing insight into how Haynes confronts issues of race sexuality and class in a suburban 1950s American neighbourhood Haynes has been evasive when pressed for a definitive explanation of his film although as Gill contends he has left enough evidence lying around on screen for the keen viewer to pick up on numerous disturbing strands at work beneath the glossy surface of this sumptuously presented weepie While it may affect to pass as a classic of the genre Haynes's ultimate aim Gill contends is to undermine the nature and notion of cinema and storytelling The Advocate, 2002-10-29 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Los Angeles Magazine, 2002-12 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award-winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for

48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian

Queer Retrosexualities Nishant Shahani, 2012-02-01

Queer Retrosexualities The Politics of Reparative Return examines the retrospective logic that informs contemporary queer thinking specifically the narrative return to the 1950s in post 1990s queer and LGBT culture in the United States The term Queer Retrosexuality marks the intersection between retrospective thinking and queerness to illustrate not only how to queer retrospection but also how retrospection in some senses can be thought of as always already queer This book examines the historical possibilities that inform the narrative return to the 1950s in queer cultural and literary productions such as Samuel Delany s The Motion of Light in Water Todd Haynes s Far from Heaven Sarah Schulman s Shimmer and Mark Merlis s American Studies all texts that return to a traumatic past marked by shame exile and persecution Queer Retrosexualities inquires into what motivates the return in these texts to a historical moment informed by the bruises and wounds of history but more importantly it poses the question of how such a turn backwards could be theorized as reparative or even hopeful This book shows how the framework of queer retrospection offers new ways of understanding history and culture of reformulating disciplines and institutions and of rethinking traditional modes of political activism and knowledge production Even while it seems counterproductive to return to a historical moment that is marked by the persecution of sexual and racial minorities the book examines how a shared feeling of relationality and community produced by the exile of shame shapes the political value of queer retrosexualities The retrospective return to the 1950s allows queer thinking to move away from the commodification of queer culture in the present that masquerades as progress Thus the book theorizes how traumatic history becomes a valuable resource for the political project of assembling collective memory as the base materials for imagining a different and more queer future

Todd Haynes Theresa L. Geller,Julia Leyda,2022-02-07 For three decades award winning independent filmmaker Todd

Haynes who emerged in the early 1990s as a foundational figure in New Queer Cinema has gained critical recognition for his outsider perspective Today Haynes is widely known for bringing women s stories to the screen Analyzing Haynes s films including Safe 1995 Velvet Goldmine 1998 Far from Heaven 2002 and Carol 2015 as well as his unauthorized Karen

Carpenter biopic Superstar 1987 and the television miniseries Mildred Pierce 2011 the contributors to Reframing Todd

Haynes reassess his work in light of his long standing feminist commitments and his exceptional career as a director of women s films They present multiple perspectives on Haynes s film and television work and on his role as an artist activist who draws on academic theorizations of gender and cinema The volume illustrates the influence of feminist theory on Haynes

s aesthetic vision most evident in his persistent interest in the political and formal possibilities afforded by the genre of the woman s film The contributors contend that no consideration of Haynes s work can afford to ignore the crucial place of feminism within it Contributors Danielle Bouchard Nick Davis Jigna Desai Mary R Desjardins Patrick Flanery Theresa L
