Farther Afield A Gardeners Excursions:

Farther Afield Allen Lacy, 1988-03 In this splendid collection of short essays gardener writer and professor Allen Lacy takes readers on a series of garden excursions beginning at home Lacy writes of his experiences with a variety of plants evening primrose prairie gentian sumac coreopsis fuchsias gloriosa lilies in his own garden in New Jersey Then he charts his travels to other gardens in the United States Spain Switzerland the Netherlands Final essays in Farther Afield include a discussion of garden writing profiles of other horticulturists and humorous pieces on cats and houseplants and of course flamingoes

A Year in Our Gardens Nancy Sanders Goodwin, Allen Lacy, 2001 Two gardeners share a year in their gardens through a series of letters wherein they exchange stories and information about their latest plantings and their lives Garden Bk Club

Gardening Southern Style Felder Rushing, 1987      Autobiography of a Garden Patterson

Webster, 2022-07-04 Autobiography of a Garden follows Patterson Webster's twenty five year journey as she transforms a beautiful but conventional country property into a 750 acre landscape that challenges what a garden is or can be A unique personal memoir this book details how a neophyte gardener moved from copying the ideas of other people to learning from them and finally to striking out on her own Combining traditions from French and English eighteenth century gardens with contemporary perspectives Webster communicates concepts and ideas that underpin the garden's design sharing a process that evolved over seasons and years She explores the meaning of creating a garden and the meaning that a garden can create linking ideas about aging and the passage of time to the reality of growth and death in the landscape and thinking through how art in a garden can reframe questions of memory and our relationship to nature Using the history of the property as a framework Webster considers the impact made by those who lived on the land before her the Abenaki the early settlers the cottagers the farmers the US southerners who came to Quebec to avoid the summer heat and the northerners who defeated them in the Civil War With engaging personal anecdotes she describes the thinking behind each part of the garden and the examples that guided her the mishaps and successes she encountered and her plans for the future Beautifully photographed and full of inspirational ways of thinking about gardens and gardening Autobiography of a Garden blends history horticulture and art encouraging readers to make their own surroundings more beautiful and more meaningful

Gardening for Love Elizabeth Lawrence, 1988-06-27 Elizabeth Lawrence occupies a secure place in the pantheon of twentieth century gardening writers that includes Gertrude Jekyll and Vita Sackville West of Great Britain and Katherine S White of the United States Her books such as A Southern Garden 1942 and The Little Bulbs 1957 remain in print continuing to win praise from critics and to delight an ever widening circle of readers In Gardening for Love Lawrence reveals another world of garden writing the world of the rural women of the South with whom she corresponded extensively from the late 1950s into the mid 1970s in response to their advertisements for herbs and ornamental perennials in several market bulletins published by state departments of agriculture for the benefit of farmers It was Eudora Welty who awakened Elizabeth

Lawrence's interest in this fascinating topic by putting her name on the mailing list of The Mississippi Market Bulletin a twice monthly collection of classified advertisements founded in 1928 and still published today Lawrence soon discovered market bulletins from the Carolinas and other Southern states as well as similar bulletins published privately in the North She began ordering plants from the bulletins and there ensued a lively exchange of letters with the women who sold them Gardening for Love is Lawrence's exploration of this little known side of American horticulture and her affectionate tribute to country people who shared her passion for plants Drawing on the letters she received sometimes a great many of them from the same persons over many years she delves into traditional plant lore herbal remedies odd and often highly poetic vernacular plant names peculiar to particular regions of the South and the herb collectors of the mountains of the Carolinas and Georgia She focuses primarily on the Southeast and the Deep South but her wide knowledge of both literature and botany gives Gardening for Love a dimension that transcends the category of regional writing
