Macartney,2011-02-01 Amidst the continued debate surrounding the foundations of IPE coupled with recent methodological and theoretical divides this book argues that an attempt should be made to re visit the notion of the critical The challenge posed by contributors to this volume is to assess the development of so called critical IPE and interrogate whether the theoretical foundations it was built upon have reached their potential The essays in this volume take up this challenge in a number of different ways but all share a common concern to re assess the purpose of critical approaches reflect on why certain social theorists have been favoured as a point of departure yet others have largely been ignored In light of recent debates on the notion of a trans Atlantic divide within IPE the collection the contributors aim demonstrates how the distinction between the critical and the orthodox or empirical is only significant if the critical is geared towards a larger more substantial body of critical social enquiry and engages with what it means to conduct such enquiry      Encountering the Transnational Ms Meena Sharify-Funk,2013-03-28 When Muslim women from diverse national and cultural contexts meet one another through transnational dialogue and networking what happens to their sense of identity and social agency Addressing this question Meena Sharify Funk encountered women activists and intellectuals in North America the Middle East South Asia and Southeast Asia women whose lives and visions have become linked by the transnational despite their differing circumstances and intellectual backgrounds The resultant work provides a rich and cliché bursting account of women's reflections on a wide range of topics including the status of women in Islam the role of women as interpreters of religious norms the relationship between secular and religious forms of self identification perceptions of Islamic Western relations experiences of marginalization and opportunities for empowerment Giving careful attention both to common threads in Muslim women's experiences and to the unique voices of remarkable women this is a compelling account of conversations that are bringing new energy and dynamism into women's activism in a world of collapsing distances Routledge
