City Living Quill R Kukla, 2021-10-08 Cities shape the people who live in them while in turn people shape the cities in which they live In this book Quill R Kukla explores how city living is distinctive and how people build territories for themselves and make themselves at home in cities Through a philosophical exploration of what it means to be a city dweller and rich and detailed explorations of particular cities such as Berlin Johannesburg and Washington D C City Living shows how the cities we live in penetrate every dimension of our lives from how we move to how we see and conversely how city dwellers creatively bend their cities to their needs

Be a Film Editor Alix Wood, 2017-12-15 One of the most crucial people behind the scenes in a movie is the film editor Without this meticulous artist a film would seem awkward hard to follow and unprofessional The film editor knows when to cut the action of a scene and how to transition into the next scene flawlessly They know when to use a close up and how to add important visual effects There s a lot to the art of film editing but this filmmaker s guide is an accessible view into the fascinating career that movie enthusiasts may never have considered

The ^AScience and Psychology of Music Performance Richard Parncutt, Gary McPherson, 2002-04-18 Music educators and practicing musicians have failed to benefit as much as they could from the past two decades of music psychology research In this volume Parncutt and McPherson propose to improve the situation by describing new approaches informed by recent psychological research to teaching music learning music and making music at all educational levels The volume s twenty one articles cover the broad issues of the developing musician subskills of musical performance and instruments and ensembles

Fluency in Reading Zvia Breznitz, 2006-08-15 This is the first book to examine in depth the crucial role of the speed of information processing in the brain in determining reading fluency in both normal and dyslexic readers Part I explains fluency in reading from both traditional and modern perspectives Fluency has historically been viewed as the outcome of other reading related factors and has often been seen as a convenient measure of reading skills This book however argues that fluency has a strong impact on other aspects of reading and plays a central role in the entire reading process Part II deals with the determinants of reading fluency Chief among these is the speed of information processing in the brain Using both behavioral and electrophysiological evidence the book systematically examines the features of processing speed in the various brain systems involved in reading visual orthographic auditory phonological and semantic and shows how speed of processing affects fluency in reading Part III deals with the complex issues of cross modal integration and specifically with the need for effective synchronization of the brain processes involved in reading It puts forward the Synchronization Hypothesis and discusses the role of the Asynchrony Phenomenon as a major factor in dyslexia Finally it summarizes research on manipulating reading rate by means of the Acceleration method providing evidence for a possible intervention aimed at reducing Asynchrony Key features of this outstanding new book include Expanded View of Fluency Reading fluency is seen as both a dependent and an independent Variable Currently available books focus on reading rate solely as the outcome of other factors whereas this volume stresses that it is both an outcome and a cause Information Processing Focus Fluency itself is determined to a large extent by a more general factor namely speed of processing in the brain The book presents wide ranging evidence for individual differences in speed of processing across many subpopulations Brain Synchronization Focus The book posits a new theory arguing that effective reading requires synchronization of the different brain systems visual orthographic auditory phonological and semantic Research Based Interventions Interventions to enhance fluency and thereby reading skills in general are presented in detail Author Expertise Zvia Breznitz is Head of the Department of Learning Disabilities and Director of the Laboratory for Neurocognitive Research at Haifa University in Israel where she has been researching this topic for over a decade This book is appropriate for researchers and advanced students in reading dyslexia learning disabilities cognitive psychology and neuropsychology
