NO LIGHT IN THE DARK and UNDER AN ASSUMED NAME John B.

Fuller, 2014-09-02 NO LIGHT IN THE DARK When Stanley Knowles was seventeen years old he fought with his father who was abusing his mother Stanley was badly beaten and left home to work in the northern territories He only returned home once when his mother died He worked as a laborer in the north for seventeen years and was presently in his fourth year at Fort McMurray in the oil patch One day without warning the power goes off there was no lighting electronic equipment did not work and even motor vehicles would not start As day after day passed and there was still no power Stan who was highly intelligent began to worry What if he thought and supposing it never came back he decided to prepare as best he could for a long siege He used cash he had removed from his bank and bought all the supplies he could find People started arriving at the farm singly and in groups and all those who sought help were welcomed to stay Stanley had men including most of his neighbors who were staying at the farm build living quarters using material salvaged from demolished buildings A small group of men attacked the farm looking for food but as the residents were armed they were beaten off Stan organized guard posts on the roads near the farm and had a group mounted on horseback and armed with shotguns ready to respond to any emergency Armed gangs roamed the countryside seeking food but over the years the numbers grew less and less UNDER AN ASSUMED NAME Sgt Herman Hines is drunk in a Saigon bar when an American reporter called him the number one American killer Herman downs the reporter with one blow and leaves the bar but is immediately arrested by MPs He is quickly charged with divulging state secrets and when advised by his council pleads guilty He is sent to a military prison in North Carolina for three years Herman serves the full sentence and when he is released finds work at a crab dock in Pamlico County All goes well for some time then federal agents tell him he must do one more killing for his country He is ready to make the shot when he sees the agent who accompanied him as spotter pointing a gun at him Sergeant Hines kills the agent

Buzzfeed Town the winter that Harvard University would begin the tumultuous process of merging with Radcliffe its all female sister school and the year that Jane Britton an ambitious twenty three year old graduate student in Harvard s Anthropology Department and daughter of Radcliffe Vice President J Boyd Britton would be found bludgeoned to death in her Cambridge Massachusetts apartment Forty years later Becky Cooper a curious undergrad will hear the first whispers of the story In the first telling the body was nameless The story was this a Harvard student had had an affair with her professor and the professor had murdered her in the Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology because she d threatened to talk about the affair Though the rumor proves false the story that unfolds one that Cooper will follow for ten years is even more complex a tale of gender inequality in academia a cowboy culture among empowered male elites the silencing effect of institutions and our compulsion to rewrite the stories of female victims We Keep the Dead Close is a memoir of mirrors misogyny and murder It is at once a rumination on the violence and oppression that rules our revered institutions a ghost story reflecting one young woman s past onto another s present and a love story for a girl who was lost to history Stains colonization and imperialism Guyana is today caught between its colonial past its efforts to achieve the consciousness of nationhood and the need of its diverse subgroups to maintain their own identity Stains on My Name War in My Veins chronicles the complex struggles of the citizens of Guyana to form a unified national culture against the pulls of ethnic religious and class identities Drawing on oral histories and a close study of daily life in rural Guyana Brackette E Williams examines how and why individuals and groups in their quest for recognition as a nation reproduce ethnic chauvinism racial stereotyping and religious bigotry By placing her ethnographic study in a broader historical context the author develops a theoretical understanding of the relations among various dimensions of personal identity in the process of nation building

Congressional Record United States. Congress,2002 No Other Name Robert Beatty,2020-11-08 Samuel Martin is not afflicted with the wanderlust that teenage boys growing into young men in isolated areas in isolated times so often are Samuel has no desire to break out of the isolation of the remote rural farm town he was born into and see the world He wants nothing more than to be the third generation patriarch on the farm of his ancestors living on the land he loves in company with the family he loves He is just facing the problem of finding the one girl he wants to share his love and life with He thinks he has found that girl in the form of the beautiful enigmatic young prostitute girl who hides her early life and hides herself behind the flowery contrived name of Clarinda The girl shares her body with him but never shares her real name Neither does she share the love she is incapable of returning Samuel loves the girl recklessly and beyond the point of caution In the process he learns that loving recklessly and beyond caution can invert and disrupt your life the way following any passion recklessly can He also learns that life is what happens to you when you had other plans My Name Is Number 4
