Farther Shore A Natural History Of Perception:

The Farther Shore Don Gifford, 1990-01-01 The Visual Culture Reader Nicholas Mirzoeff, 2002 This thoroughly revised and updated second edition of The Visual Culture Reader brings together key writings as well as specially commissioned articles covering a wealth of visual forms including photography painting sculpture fashion advertising television cinema and digital culture The Reader features an introductory section tracing the development of visual culture studies in response to globalization and digital culture and articles grouped into thematic sections each prefaced by an introduction by the editor and conclude with suggestions for further reading The Emergence of Pre-Cinema Alberto Gabriele, 2016-12-21 The book investigates the dispersed emergence of the new visual regime associated with nineteenth century pre cinematic spectacles in the literary imagination of the previous centuries Its comparative angle ranges from the Medieval and Baroque period to the visual and stylistic experimentations of the Romantic age in the prose of Anne Radcliffe the experiments of Friedrich Schlegel and in Wordsworth's Prelude The book examines the cultural traces of the transformation of perception and representation in art architecture literature and print culture providing an indispensable background to any discussion of nineteenth century culture at large and its striving for a figurative model of realism Understanding the origins of nineteenth century mimesis through an unacknowledged genealogy of visual practices helps also to redefine novel theory and points to the centrality of the new definition of historicism irradiating from Jena Romanticism for the structuring of modern cultural studies Thaipusam in Malaysia Carl Vadivella Belle, 2018-02-14 This book explores the festival of Thaipusam in terms of its own inner dynamics the traditions and belief structures which ensure the festival's continuing relevance to Malaysian Hindus It argues that Thaipusam reflects a growing sense of Hindu identity in Malaysia and an as yet inchoate unity It contends that while the kavadi ritual provides profound meaning at the individual and group level Thaipusam furnishes a public arena for and gives expression to a powerful Hindu resurgence largely though not exclusively fuelled by Dravidian assertiveness In situating the festival within the context of a Malaysia dominated by Malay and Islamic power brokers a society in which both the Indian community and Hinduism are relegated to the margins the book explores the festival of Thaipusam as a vehicle for mobilization of religious symbols and values which not only simultaneously articulate ethnicity and thus resist the forces which threaten cultural and religious integrity but which also ultimately signal wider allegiances to the broader politico cultural world of an imagined immeasurably rich and enduring Indo Hindu civilization The Shield of Achilles and the Poetics of Ekphrasis Andrew Sprague Becker, 1995-03-21 In The Shield of Achilles and the Poetics of Ekphrasis Becker explores how Homeric poetry shapes its own reception how Homer's reaction to a visual image creates his audience's response to a literary description Becker also enters into a fiercely raging literary debate about the modernist self conscious elements of Homeric narrative The Challenges of Ivan Illich Lee Hoinacki, Carl Mitcham, 2012-02-01 This unique collection examines the man Utne Reader has called the greatest social critic of the twentieth century The essays all by people Illich has influenced personally discuss how his life and thought have affected conceptualization study and practice of psychotherapy notions about education ideas concerning the historical development of the text perceptions of technology as well as other topics All of Illich s books are discussed and his ideas on education theology technology anarchism and society are examined in relationship to those of Ren Girard Karl Polanyi Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Ellul Illich s previously unpublished paper offering a new view of conspiracy in European history is included

Notations Of The Wild Gyorgyi Voros,1997-02 Focusing on three governing metaphors in Stevens s poems Nature as house body and self the author argues that Stevens s youthful wilderness experience yielded his primary poetic subject the relationship between humans and nature and shifted his understanding of nature from romantic to phenomenological She draws on the extraliterary discourses of phenomenology and ecology mapping the landscape of Stevens s career and canon Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Comparative Cinema Paul Coates,2021-05-10 This book comprises what may be called exercises in comparative cinema Its focus on endings near endings and late style is connected with the author s argument that comparative criticism itself may constitute an endgame of criticism arising at the moment at which societies or individuals relinquish primary adherence to one tradition or medium The comparisons embrace different works and artistic media and primarily concern works of literature and film though they also consider issues raised by the interrelationship of language and moving and still images as well as inter and intra textuality The works probed most fully are ones by Theo Angelopoulos Ingmar Bergman Harun Farocki Theodor Fontane Henry James Krzysztof Kie lowski Chang dong Lee Roman Pola ski Thomas Pynchon and Paul Schrader while the key recurrent motifs are those of dusk the horizon the labyrinth and the ruin

The Nineteenth-Century Novel and the Pre-Cinematic Imagination Alberto Gabriele,2024-11-14 This book fills a gap in existing scholarship on the history of the novel in relation to visual culture by discussing the visual fascination that novelists such as Nathaniel Hawthorne Herman Melville Honor de Balzac and George Eliot show for several types of pre cinematic spectacle It also identifies a so far neglected aspect of novel theory that nineteenth century authors elaborated by incorporating suggestions from pre cinematic visual spectacles By shedding light on forms of visibility that were not entertained by the dominant aesthetic modes of painting and photography The Nineteenth Century Novel and the Pre Cinematic Imagination argues that the presence of nineteenth century pre cinematic optical illusions in works of fiction redefines the notion of mimesis as animated movement and points to a continuity between pre cinema the literary imagination and the structures of knowledge production of the modern episteme

The Global Age Martin Albrow,2013-06-28 Many authors who discuss the idea of globalization see it as continuing pre established paths of development of modern societies Post modernist writers by contrast have lost sight of the importance of historical narrative altogether Martin Albrow argues that neither group is able to recognize the new era which stares us in the face A history of the present needs an explicit epochal theory to understand the transition to the Global Age

When globality displaces modernity there is a general decentering of state government economy culture and community Albrow calls for a recasting of the theory of such institutions and the relations between them He finds an open potential for society to recover its abiding significance in the face of the declining nation state At the same time a new kind of citizenship is emerging This important book will provoke both radicals and conservatives Its scholarship ranges widely across the social sciences and humanities It is bound to promote wide cross disciplinary debate Ford Madox Ford's Parade's End Ashley Chantler, Rob Hawkes, 2014-07-10 The controversial British writer Ford Madox Ford 1873 1939 is increasingly recognized as a major presence in early twentieth century literature This series of International Ford Madox Ford Studies was founded to reflect the recent resurgence of interest in him Each volume is based upon a particular theme issue or work and relates aspects of Ford's writing life and contacts to broader concerns of his time Ford is best known for his fiction especially The Good Soldier long considered a modernist masterpiece and Parade's End which Anthony Burgess described as the finest novel about the First World War Samuel Hynes has called the greatest war novel ever written by an Englishman and which was adapted by Tom Stoppard for the acclaimed 2012 BBC HBO television series starring Benedict Cumberbatch and Rebecca Hall Parade's End is the subject of the fifteen essays here by both established experts and new scholars The volume includes groundbreaking work on the psycho geography of the war in Ford's novels on how the war intensifies self consciousness about performance and sensation and on the other writers and artists Ford drew upon and argued with in producing his post war masterpiece Cinematography in the Weimar Republic Paul Matthew St. Pierre, 2016-08-15 In film history director cinematographer collaborations were on a labor spectrum with the model of the contracted camera operator in the silent era and that of the cinematographer in the sound era But in Weimar era German filmmaking 1919-33 a short period of intense artistic activity and political and economic instability these models existed side by side due to the emergence of camera operators as independent visual artists and collaborators with directors Berlin in the 1920s was the chief site of the interdisciplinary avant garde of the Modernist movement in the visual literary architectural design typographical sartorial and performance arts in Europe The Weimar Revolution that arose in the aftermath of the November 1918 Armistice and that established the Weimar Republic informed and agitated all of the art movements such as Expressionism Dada the Bauhaus Minimalism Objectivism Verism and Neue Sachlichkeit New Objectivity Among the avant garde forms of these new stylistically and culturally negotiated arts the cinema was foremost and since its inception had been a radical experimental practice in new visual technologies that proved instrumental in changing how human beings perceived movement structure perspective light exposure temporal duration continuity spatial orientation human postural facial vocal and gestural displays and their own spectatorship as well as conventions of storytelling like narrative setting theme character and structure Whereas most of the arts mobilized into schools movements institutions and other structures cinema a collaborative art tended to organize around its ensembles of practitioners Historically the silent film era 1895-1927 is associated with auteurs the precursors of François Truffaut and other filmmakers in the 1960s actuality filmmakers and pioneers like R W Paul and Fred and Joe Evans in England Auguste and Luis Lumi re and Georges M li s in France and Charles Chaplin and Buster Keaton in America who by managing all the compositional executorial and editorial facets of film production scripting directing acting photographing set costume and lighting design editing and marketing imposed their personal vision or authorship on the film The dichotomy of the auteur and the production ensemble established a production hierarchy in most filmmaking In formative German silent film however this hierarchy was less rank or class driven because collaborative partnerships took precedence over single authorship Whereas in silent film production in most countries the terms filmmaker and director were synonymous in German silent film the plural term filmemacherin connoted both directors and cinematographers along with the rest of the filmmaking crew Thus German silent filmmakers principle contribution to the new medium and art of film was less the representational iconographies of Expressionist New Objective and Naturalist styles than the executorial practice of co authorship and co production in distinctive cinematographer director partnerships such as those of cinematographer Theodor Sparkuhl and director Ernst Lubitsch Fritz Arno Wagner with F W Murnau Fritz Lang and G W Pabst Rudolf Mat with Carl Theodor Dreyer Guido Seeber with Lang and Pabst and Carl Hoffmann with Lang and Murnau

Discover Design Pattern Thinking DR. RUDY A. MAGNAN,2013-07-18 Thinking skill is unquestionably the fundamental human resource We need to do much more about developing this skill because the complexity of modern life demands more than routine reactions There is an even bigger need for productive constructive and generative thinking I hope that everyone concerned with the future direction of education will pay attention to these important matters which you raise in this book Dr Edward de Bono WORLDS LEADING AUTHORITY ON THINKING AS A DELIBERATE SKILL This Woman in Particular Stephanie Kirkwood Walker,2010-01-27 What happens when an individual becomes the subject of many and divergent portraits Biography says Stephanie Kirkwood Walker is a deceptive genre Positioned between fact and fiction and elusive in its purposes biography displays an individual life an existence patterned by conventions that have also shaped the reader s experience In This Woman in Particular Walker explores versions of Emily Carr s life that have appeared over the last half century Walker contends that the biographical image of Emily Carr that emerges from an accumulation of biographies films plays and poetry as well as her own autobiographical writing establishes an elaborated cultural artefact an image that is bound by its very nature to remain forever incomplete and always elusive She demonstrates how changes in Carr s biographical image parallel the maturing of Canadian biographical writing reflecting attitudes toward women artists and the shifting balance between religion secular attitudes and contemporary spirituality And she concludes that biography plays a crucial role in all our lives in initiating and sustaining debate on vital personal and collective concerns Discover Bio-Design Thinking Dr. Rudy A. Magnan,2018-07-31 Our minds are organized into a certain mind set based on our perception of the reality we develop in our socialization into society I believe that because we are living and operating a new creative paradigm filled with new ideas concepts and laws we must begin to challenge our existing mind set and seek creative concepts and methods that will allow us to see this new alternative reality that many refuse to recognize and accept We can look at nature as a composite of isolated snapshots showing its beauty or we can view the incredible and intelligent design and function behind every plant tree and living creature The intended goal of the book is to provoke your mind to see this incredible bio design from which we can begin to develop a higher level of understanding and meaning We will soon realize that we will discover and recognize new patterns as we process new information We will begin to connect ideas and concepts previously not connected We will raise the quality of our perceptions and thinking using the intelligent design found in nature Dramas of Solitude Randall Roorda,1998-01-01 What do stories of nature tell us about the social or ethical purposes of solitude And what do stories of solitude reveal of the character of nonhuman nature Dramas of Solitude brings the insights of narrative theory to bear upon the genre of nature writing to explore the social or ethical purposes of solitude in stories of retreat in nature Through discussions of texts by Henry D Thoreau John C Van Dyke Wendell Berry and student writers among others this book complicates social views of literacy with depictions of a solitude held in dynamic relation to a not only human community It will inform the efforts of literary critics and writing teachers alike who hope to reintegrate English studies upon ecological terms In Another World Tom Pow,2012-05-21 In one of the great defining moments in human history more people now live in cities than in rural areas and the effects of this depopulation and the plummeting birthrate are being felt keenly throughout Europe which has the fastest declining population in the world Tom Pow sets out to explore what this means in some of the most rapidly vanishing areas of Europe From Spain to Russia he uses the tools of his trade travelogue essay story and poem to make connections not only with what he encounters in numerous dying villages but to reflect on his own experiences of memory identity and loss In Another World is an open book not an argument but an invitation to remember to reflect and to engage with one of the most significant social issues affecting Europe today
