The Concise Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L. Andrews, Frances Smith Foster, Trudier Harris, 2001-02-15 A breathtaking achievement this Concise Companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass from Zora Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson It contains entries on major works including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs's

Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Richard Wright's Native Son and Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Bigger Thomas Coffin Ed Johnson Kunta Kinte Sula Peace as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima Brer Rabbit John Henry Stackolee and the trickster Icons of black culture are addressed including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali John Coltrane Marcus Garvey Jackie Robinson John Brown and Harriet Tubman Here too are general articles on poetry fiction and drama on autobiography slave narratives Sunday School literature and oratory as well as on a wide spectrum of related topics Compact yet thorough this handy volume gathers works from a vast array of sources from the black periodical press to women's clubs making it one of the most substantial guides available on the growing exciting world of African American literature The Ringing Ear Nikky Finney, 2007 More than one hundred contemporary black poets laugh at and cry about pray for and curse flee and return to the South in this collection of poems which features contributions by Nikki Giovanni Kevin Young Cornelius Eady Sonia Sanchez and other notables Simultaneous The Lever of Riches Joel Mokyr, 1992-04-09 In a world of supercomputers genetic engineering and fiber optics technological creativity is ever more the key to economic success But why are some nations more creative than others and why do some highly innovative societies such as ancient China or Britain in the industrial revolution pass into stagnation Beginning with a fascinating concise history of technological progress Mokyr sets the background for his analysis by tracing the major inventions and innovations that have transformed society since ancient Greece and Rome What emerges from this survey is often surprising the classical world for instance was largely barren of new technology the relatively backward society of medieval Europe bristled with inventions and the period between the Reformation and the Industrial Revolution was one of slow and unspectacular progress in technology despite the tumultuous developments associated with the Voyages of Discovery and the Scientific Revolution What were the causes of technological creativity Mokyr distinguishes between the relationship of inventors and their physical environment which determined their willingness to challenge nature and the social environment which determined the openness to new ideas He discusses a long list of such factors showing how they interact to help or hinder a nation's creativity and then illustrates them by a number of detailed comparative studies examining the differences between Europe and China between classical antiquity and medieval Europe and between Britain and the rest of Europe during the industrial revolution He examines such aspects as the role of the state the Chinese gave up a millennium wide lead in shipping to the Europeans for example when an Emperor banned large ocean going vessels the impact of science as well as religion politics and even nutrition He questions the importance of such commonly cited factors as the spill over benefits of war the abundance of natural resources life expectancy and labor costs Today an ever greater number of industrial economies are competing in the global market locked in a struggle that revolves around technological ingenuity The Lever of Riches with its keen analysis derived from a sweeping survey of creativity throughout history offers telling insights into the question of how Western economies can maintain and developing nations can unlock their creative potential Denise Levertov in Company Donna Krolik Hollenberg, 2018-06-30 A reflection on this poet's legacy through essays by contemporary poets and literary critics Denise Levertov 1923-1997 was an award-winning author of more than thirty books of poetry and prose featuring the subjects of politics and war and in later years religion Born and raised in England amid political unrest and war Levertov moved to the United States after World War II and settled in as a passionate poet activist for peace and environmental conservation She initially gained recognition as a member of the Black Mountain poets and later as a highly respected mentor and educator at esteemed universities including Massachusetts Institute of Technology Brandeis and Stanford where she helped shape future generations of poets In Denise Levertov in Company Donna Krolik Hollenberg has assembled ten essays by contemporary poets who were influenced by Levertov as former students and or colleagues and another ten by literary critics Hollenberg selected contributors on the basis of their spiritual intellectual and political connections with Levertov at different stages of her life in the United States and all are distinguished in their own right The first five poets became acquainted with Levertov in the 1960s and 1970s when she and they protested against the war in Vietnam The next five poets who were close to Levertov in the 1980s and 1990s while she was at Stanford respond to aspects of Levertov's religious quest and her love and concern for the natural world To assess Levertov's influence on contemporary poetry Hollenberg has organized the essays into pairs First a contributor offers a personal essay about his or her relationship with Levertov which is followed by a companion essay about the contributor's poetry in relation to Levertov's What emerges is a dialogue between autobiographical testimony and critical analysis This combination of personal witness and objective evaluation contributes to a greater understanding of the contemporary poetry scene and the influence of Levertov's distinguished and affecting legacy Contributors Rae Armantrout Eavan Boland Martha Collins Alison Hawthorne Deming Susan Eisenberg Reginald Gibbons Donna Krolik Hollenberg Romana Huk Paul Lacey Aldon Lynn Nielsen Kathleen Norris Mark Pawlak Peggy Rosenthal Ben S enz Peter Dale Scott David Shaddock Michael Thurston Emily Warn Bruce Weigl Al Young Pow-Wow Ishmael Reed, 2009-01-27 Using the yardstick that a short story is any fiction under 15 000 words Ishmael Reed with the assistance of Carla Blank has assembled an anthology that reexamines the history of the form across a broader more inclusive spectrum The result is a collection that stretches the boundaries of the American literary landscape including work ranging from animal stories of the Northwest Coast Eyaks to African American folklore to reflections on the American Muslim experience Pow Wow is the sequel to Reed's From Totems to Hip Hop A Multicultural Anthology of Poetry Across the Americas 1900-2002 a volume that included both Tupac Shakur and T S Eliot and was named one of the best poetry anthologies of 2003 by Library Journal Its fiction focused follow up once again demonstrates the broad range of American writing from such stellar names as Langston Hughes Gertrude Stein Russell Banks and Alejandro Murgu to newly discovered writers of all races genders and backgrounds By presenting many different sides to the American story the fiction of these writers challenges official history shatters accepted myths and provides alternatives to mainstream notions of personal and national identity Gathering these voices together Pow Wow offers a fascinating and vital opportunity to traverse the fault lines that separate distinguish and define a nation made of many Americas African American Writers Lynda Koolish,2001 This volume of photos of African American authors highlights the diversity within African American literature and celebrates the many genres it explores 59 photos The Chronology of American Literature Daniel S. Burt,2004 If you are looking to brush up on your literary knowledge check a favorite author s work or see a year s bestsellers at a glance The Chronology of American Literature is the perfect resource At once an authoritative reference and an ideal browser s guide this book outlines the indispensable information in America s rich literary past from major publications to lesser known gems while also identifying larger trends along the literary timeline Who wrote the first published book in America When did Edgar Allan Poe achieve notoriety as a mystery writer What was Hemingway s breakout title With more than 8 000 works by 5 000 authors The Chronology makes it easy to find answers to these questions and more Authors and their works are grouped within each year by category fiction and nonfiction poems drama literary criticism and publishing events Short concise entries describe an author s major works for a particular year while placing them within the larger context of that writer s career The result is a fascinating glimpse into the evolution of some of America s most prominent writers Perhaps most important The Chronology offers an invaluable line through our literary past tying literature to the American experience war and peace boom and bust and reaction to social change You ll find everything here from Benjamin Franklin s Experiments and Observations on Electricity to Davy Crockett s first memoir from Thoreau s Civil Disobedience to Edith Wharton s Ethan Frome from meditations by James Weldon Johnson and James Agee to poetry by Elizabeth Bishop Also included here are seminal works by authors such as Rachel Carson Toni Morrison John Updike and Arthur Schlesinger Jr Lavishly illustrated and rounded out with handy bestseller lists throughout the twentieth century lists of literary awards and prizes and authors birth and death dates The Chronology of American Literature belongs on the shelf of every bibliophile and literary enthusiast It is the essential link to our literary past and present Learning by Heart Maggie Anderson,David Hassler,1999 A collection of poems written primarily between 1970 and 1995 by contemporary American poets that recall the experiences of elementary and high school Critical Survey of Poetry: Essays.
