The City in the Developing World Robert B. Potter, Sally Lloyd-Evans, 2014-09-25 The City in the Developing World is a comprehensive and up to date introduction to urbanisation in developing countries The goal of this text is to place an understanding of the developing world city in its wider global context First this is done by developing the concept of social surplus product as a key to understanding the character of the contemporary Third World city Second throughout this text the city in developing areas is centrally placed in the context of global social economic political and cultural change Thus the important themes of globalisation modernity and postmodernity are examined both in relation to the structure of sets of towns and cities which make up the national or regional urban system and in respect of ideas and concepts dealing with the morphology structure and social patterning of individual urban areas The City in the Developing World is a core text for second and third year undergraduates in the fields of geography development studies planning economics and the social sciences taking options which deal with development issues development theory gender and development and Third World development

Tourism in the Caribbean David Timothy Duval, 2004-07-31 This book brings together a high calibre team of international researchers to provide an up to date assessment of the scope of tourism and the nature of tourism development in the Caribbean past present and future

The Urban Caribbean in an Era of Global Change Robert B. Potter, 2017-03-02 Based on the author's first hand field research this book addresses the twin processes of urbanization and globalization as they affect the contemporary Caribbean region One of the key aims of the book is to focus attention on the fact that contrary to popular perceptions the Caribbean is highly urbanized Indeed statistics show that the region is more highly urbanized than the world taken as a whole In addition the fact that the Caribbean region has always been affected by processes of globalization in respect of its economy polity and society is central to the text The chapters cover pressing topics such as urban change and the evolution of mini metropolitan regions the importance of the mercantile and plantopolis frameworks tourism post modernity and the urban nexus economic change and the dual processes of global convergence and divergence and the nature of the relationships existing between the state the informal sector housing and environmental conditions In reality it is shown that the development of tourism and enclave manufacturing is leading to new forms of urban concentration and not spatial dispersal

China's Urbanization Chaolin Gu, 2024-11-19 This book tries to root its exploration of China's urbanization in the very local realities of China from the perspective of urban geography and international urbanization theory The research is of large scale full process and boasts the feature of multidimensional and systematic thinking In order clearly illustrate the full dimensions of China's urbanization each chapter presents series of well designed figures and tables to enhance the book's readability and clarity This book can be used as a reference for scholars and decision makers who are engaged or interested in China's urbanization policy urban and regional planning and socioeconomic transformation The Contemporary Caribbean Robert B. Potter,David Barker,Thomas Klak,Denis Conway,2015-07-17 This text focuses on the contemporary economic social geographical environmental and political realities of the Caribbean region Historical aspects of the Caribbean such as slavery the plantation system and plantocracy are explored in order to explain the contemporary nature of and challenges faced by the Caribbean The book is divided into three parts dealing respectively with the foundations of the Caribbean rural and urban bases of the contemporary Caribbean and global restructuring and the Caribbean industry tourism and politics Land Law in African Countries Oleg Igorevich Krassov,2022 The monograph studies the key aspects of land law of African countries customary land tenure laws customary rights to water forest cattle grazing the influence of colonial epoch on customary land tenure systems and the rights of African women to land Characteristic features of land and water rights under Islamic law are provided The current state of formal land law in the countries of North West Central and East Africa is analyzed including the following the right of ownership to land and other natural resources types of various rights to land and natural resources and the relationship of formal law and customary land tenure systems For students graduate students and teachers of law schools employees of legislative executive and judicial authorities as well as for all those interested in land civil law and comparative legal studies Encyclopedia of World Poverty Mehmet Odekon,2006 Provides extensive and current information as well as insight into the contemporary debate on poverty and contains over 800 original articles written by more than 125 renowned scholars Third World Planning Review ,1988 Contemporary Urban Sociology William G. Flanagan,1993-07-30 This book provides an up to date overview of issues and debates in contemporary urban sociology It is both a guide to and a critical analysis of the major theoretical approaches to the field Island Tourism and Sustainable Development Yorghos Apostolopoulos,Dennis J. Gayle,2002-03-30 This multidisciplinary volume discusses the impact of tourism on sustainable development in the Caribbean the Pacific and the Mediterranean Bringing together scholars development practitioners international experts and professionals the contributors discuss the issues from a holistic and transnational perspective This work provides a much needed thorough understanding of the interplay among economic cultural environmental and public health parameters The contributors provide a workable definition of sustainable development that can be understood conveyed and implemented by policy makers development practitioners and tourism professionals Among the special issues addressed here are the role of women in tourism the contradictions inherent in cultural tourism the hegemony of tour operators disease mapping and risk assessment and island community involvement in tourism related land use planning Geographers Elizabeth Baigent,André Reyes Novaes,2022-06-16 The 40th volume of Geographers Biobibliographical Studies focuses exclusively on geographers from the Global South For the first time in the serial's history the entire volume is devoted to geographers who were born or who lived in South America and is combined with an editorial which roots their lives and careers in the context of the Global South more generally These geographers biobibliographies which consider their personal and professional trajectories and encounters deepen our understanding of geography as a whole and raise important wider questions of the scope and place of Southern scholarship This volume includes meticulously detailed volumes on five of the most prominent and ground breaking geographers in the Global South including The Argentinian geographer Elina González Acha de Correa Morales who was the first woman to apply for membership of the Argentinean Geographical Institute in 1888 and who played an important role in developing geographical science in Argentina The Brazilian geographer Bernardino de Souza active in Brazil in the late nineteenth century as a secretary of the Geographical and Historical Institute of Bahia The Portuguese scholar Jaime Zuzarte Cortes o Director of the National Library of Portugal who was exiled in Brazil between 1940 and 1957 and greatly influenced research into the exploration and mapping of South America The Brazilian geographer Josu Apol nio de Castro who was a member of the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organisation's international advisory group on nutrition during the 1940s and the 1950s The late twentieth century Brazilian geographer Ant nio Carlos Robert Moraes who was a key figure in the circulation of critical approaches in Brazilian geography Together these biobibliographies allow the reader to focus on the Global South as a place of geographical knowledge production translation and reception enlarging our discipline's histories The volume also links the serial firmly to wider debates on decolonisation and post colonialism and is the latest manifestation of the editorial drive to broaden the serial's reach and impact and to consolidate its place as an important vehicle in narrating geography's international story
