Geno In Pursuit Of Perfection:

Geno Geno Auriemma, Jackie MacMullan, 2025-05-01 Controversial confrontational and driven Coach Geno Auriemma is a force to be reckoned with and the most accomplished male coach in women's basketball today. In his relentless quest for excellence at the University of Connecticut he has led the Huskies to five national championships. Yet his soul never rests. For Auriemma life affords only the briefest moments of happiness: a good round of golf, forty minutes of great basketball a day at the beach with his family, a nice glass of wine while disaster is seemingly always waiting to strike. It's a fatalistic philosophy, a remnant of his hardscrabble early years, but it's an outlook that has driven him to unparalleled success. In this deeply personal memoir, Geno Auriemma reveals for the first time the man behind the legend. He talks candidly about his coaching style, famed for being one of the most demanding in all the sports world. He spills the beans about his stormy dealings with other coaches, such as his archrival Pat Summitt of the University of Tennessee. And with warmth and a genuine love for his champions, he writes openly about Diana Taurasi, Sue Bird, Nykesha Sales, Rebecca Lobo, Swin Cash, and all of his other UConn stars who have gone on to stellar WNBA careers. You get a courtside seat to all of the action, including an epilogue on the 2004-05 season as well as interviews with the team's most celebrated players. A rare look inside the soul of a true competitor, GENO is the story of how one passionate man overcame his own fears to achieve an extraordinary record of success.

Geno Geno Auriemma, 2014-07-02 The legendary coach of the University of Connecticut's women's basketball team shares a riveting first person account of what it takes to become the most successful collegiate women's basketball coach in the country. 8 page photo insert. Getting to Us Seth Davis, 2018-03-06 What makes a coach great? How do great coaches turn a collection of individuals into a coherent unit? Seth Davis, one of the keenest minds in sports journalism, has been thinking about that question for twenty-five years. It's one of the things that drove him to write the definitive biography of college basketball's greatest coach, John Wooden. Wooden: A Coach's Life. But John Wooden coached a long time ago. The world has changed, and coaching has too. Tremendously, Seth Davis decided to embark on a proper investigation to get to the root of the matter. In Getting to Us, Davis probes and prods the best of the best from the landscape of active coaches of football and basketball, college and pro, from Urban Meyer, Dabo Swinney, and Jim Harbaugh to Mike Krzyzewski, Tom Izzo, Jim Boeheim, Brad Stevens, Geno Auriemma, and Doc Rivers, to get at the fundamental ingredients of greatness in the coaching sphere. There's no single right way, of course. Part of the great value of this book is Davis's distillation of what he has learned about different types of greatness in coaching and what sort of leadership thrives in one kind of environment but not in others. Some coaches have thrived at the college level but not in the pros. Why? What's the difference? Some coaches are stern taskmasters, others are warm and cuddly, some are brilliant strategists but less emotionally involved with their players, and with others it's vice versa. In Getting to Us, we come to feel a deep connection with the most successful and iconic coaches in all of sports, big winners and big characters whose stories offer much of enduring interest and value. Geno Auriemma John

Fredric Evans,2019-07-15 Today top recruits know that Connecticut embodies excellence in women s basketball But before Geno Auriemma began his unprecedented run to 11 national championships the Huskies only brought out bleachers for the biggest games Auriemma established a culture that would become a model for sports programs His players learn to put their personal point totals aside and work together for wins in the process unlocking their fullest potential as people This two time Olympic gold medal winner gives a great interview because he tells us what he truly believes and he s a great coach for the same reason His players know exactly what he expects from them and stars do not get special treatment He demands more from those with the most to give This biography details the remarkable story of an immigrant who rose from poverty to become synonymous with success in sports developing leadership principles invaluable to any team Sports in American

The Champion's Comeback Jim Afremow, 2016-05-10
 Your ultimate guide to overcoming losses and injuries and achieving greatness on and off the field. Leading sports psychologist Jim Afremow, author of The Champion's Mind, knows what makes good athletes great, especially when they come back to win after facing devastating injuries, tough obstacles, or seemingly insurmountable odds. Making a comeback isn't just about raw talent or athletic ability; it's the mental game that counts most. In the new paperback edition of The Champion's Comeback, he offers winning strategies for athletes of any age or skill level to get mentally psyched for competition, quickly rebound after a loss, and overcome injuries and the fear of re-injury. Afremow explores the psychology of commitment and shows you how to develop the core confidence of repeat champions. Featuring unique tips and advice, including guided imagery, scripts, easy-to-follow mental training exercises, and motivating stories of famous comeback athletes, The Champion's Comeback is the ultimate athlete's handbook, encouraging you to not only stay in the game but also achieve greatness no matter what.

Unrivaled Jeff Goldberg, 2015-03-01
 For twelve years, the women's basketball rivalry between UConn and Tennessee was the most iconic matchup in women's sports. Even now, twenty years since the annual series started, the competition between these two storied programs still provokes heated argument and bitter resentment. Led by Hall of Fame coaches Geno Auriemma and Pat Summitt, UConn and Tennessee combined for nine national championships, with the UConn Huskies winning five, including four against the Tennessee Lady Vols. In all, UConn won thirteen of twenty-two matchups during the rivalry, and along the way, the two coaches, with distinctive and brash personalities and a shared determination to rule their sport, clashed privately and publicly, generating enough heat to make women's basketball relevant in the national sports landscape as never before. On the court, the two teams produced a series of memorable games, from overtime thrillers to timeless classics that defined the sport. Off the court, the coaches' encounters were often marked by their seemingly genuine dislike for each other, until the conflict reached a breaking point in 2007, when Summitt stunned the basketball world by canceling the series for reasons neither side has ever revealed. Now, eight years after the last game, Unrivaled uncovers the on-court and behind-the-scenes story of this intensely personal rivalry between coaches, players, and the two most passionate fan bases women's sports has ever known.

Shattering the Glass Pamela Grundy, Susan Shackelford, 2025-02-17
 American women's basketball has reached new peaks of interest and popularity thanks to spellbinding athletes, exhilarating games, and a vibrant, empowered vision of womanhood. Shattering the Glass stands as the definitive history of the sport. Combining extensive historical research with dozens of oral history interviews, Pamela Grundy and Susan Shackelford bring life and depth to stories of the many generations of female athletes who have fought for liberation on and off the court. In this new and substantially expanded edition, Grundy and Shackelford provide a fresh view of the sport that extends to the present. They
