is challenged by denialist literature By concentrating on factors such as the role of communications and news media global and national social networks the weaponization of information by authoritarian regimes and political parties court cases in the United States and Europe freedom of speech and postmodernist thought this volume discusses how genocide denial is becoming a fact of daily life in the twenty first century Human Rights in Development, Volume 7 George Ulrich, Louise Krabbe Boserup, 2021-11-29 The present edition of the Human Rights in Development Yearbook is the thirteenth edition in this series With this volume the yearbook's formal structure has shifted from that of a journal to a thematic anthology The theme of this year's volume is Reparations Redressing Past Wrongs The articles contained in the publication primarily stem from contributions prepared for a conference entitled The Right to Compensation and Related Remedies for Racial Discrimination that was hosted by the Danish Centre for Human Rights in April 2001 The conference was organised in anticipation of the World Conference Against Racism Racial Discrimination Xenophobia and Related Intolerance which was held in Durban in September 2001 The publication consists of 15 articles divided into four main parts addressing the subjects of Reparations at the National and Regional Levels Precedence and Standing of International Law The Moral and Social Aspects of Reparation and Reflections Human Rights in Development is the result of a joint research project born out of longstanding co operation between the following research institutes and centres for human rights the Christian Michelsen Institute Bergen the Danish Centre for Human Rights Copenhagen the Icelandic Human Rights Centre Reykjavik the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute of Human Rights Vienna the International Centre for Human Rights and Democratic Development Montreal the Netherlands Institute of Human Rights Utrecht the Norwegian Institute of Human Rights Oslo the Raoul Wallenberg Institute of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law Lund and the Academy University of Rethinking Humanitarian Intervention Brian D. Lepard, 2015-08-26 Few foreign policy issues in the past decade have elicited as much controversy as the use of military force for humanitarian purposes In this book Brian Lepard offers a new method for analyzing humanitarian intervention that seeks to resolve conflicts among legal norms by identifying ethical principles embedded in the UN Charter and international law and relating them to a pivotal principle of unity in diversity A special feature of the book which avoids the charge of ethnocentricity brought against other approaches is that Lepard shows how passages from the revered texts of seven world religions may be interpreted as supporting these ethical principles In connecting law with ethics and religion in this way he takes a major step forward in the effort to formulate a normative basis for international law in our multicultural world The Failure to Prevent Genocide in Rwanda Frederik Grünfeld, Anke Huijboom, 2007 This volume is about the failure to prevent genocide in Rwanda in 1994 In particular the research focuses on why the early warnings of an emerging genocide were not translated into early preventative action The warnings were well documented by the most authoritative source the Canadian UN peace keeping commander General Romeo Dallaire and sent to the leading political civil servants in New York The communications and the decisionmaking are scrutinized i.e. who received what messages at what time to whom the messages were forwarded and which non decisions were taken in response to the alarming reports of weapon deliveries and atrocities This book makes clear that this genocide could have been prevented Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint     The International Law on Foreign Investment M.
