Genocide After Emotion:

Genocide after Emotion Stjepan Mestrovic, 2013-09-13 The failure to adequately respond on the part of the major Western superpowers to the atrocities in the Balkans constitutes a major moral and political scandal In Genocide after Emotion Mestrovic and the contributors thoroughly interrogate the war its media coverage and response in the West The result is alarming both for the progress of the war and for the condition of our society today the authors argue that the West is suffering from a postemotional condition we are beyond caring about anything anymore A Cultural History of Genocide in the Modern World Deborah Mayersen, 2023-05-04 The cry of never again reverberated around the world in the aftermath of the Holocaust Yet despite the unprecedented horrors of the Shoah and the subsequent creation of the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide the frequency of genocide intensified in the post Holocaust period Since 1945 there have been genocides or mass killings in East Pakistan now Bangladesh East Timor Indonesia Guatemala Cambodia Rwanda Bosnia Darfur Iraq and elsewhere This volume examines the cultural history of genocide in the modern world It focuses on the period from the end of the Second World War to the present day The volume examines not only the many genocides that have occurred during this period but the beliefs and actions that led to them the local and international responses and the changing way in which genocide has been understood It chronicles key developments including the creation of international legal and political mechanisms to address genocide It also considers creative and artistic responses to genocide and how genocide is remembered and memorialized in the modern world Finally it examines the issue of genocide prevention and the prospects for a more positive future Emotions in International Politics Yohan Ariffin, Jean-Marc Coicaud, Vesselin Popovski, 2016-01-11 This book investigates collective emotions in international politics with examples from 9 11 and World War II to the Rwandan genocide Law, Reason and Emotion Mortimer Sellers (org.), Catherine Moore (org.), Vitor Medrado (org.), Volume II Special Workshops Initia Via Editora Narrating Victimhood Michaela Schäuble, 2014-04-01 Mythologies and narratives of victimization pervade contemporary Croatia set against the backdrop of militarized notions of masculinity and the political mobilization of religion and nationhood Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork in rural Dalmatia in the Croatian Bosnian border region this book provides a unique account of the politics of ambiguous Europeanness from the perspective of those living at Europe s margins Examining phenomena such as Marian apparitions a historic knights tournament the symbolic re signification of a massacre site and the desolate social situation of Croatian war veterans Narrating Victimhood traces the complex mechanisms of political radicalization in a post war scenario This book provides a new perspective for understanding the ongoing processes of transformation in Southeastern Europe and the Balkans Screening Bosnia Stephen Harper, 2017-03-09 The Bosnian war of 1992 1995 was one of the most brutal conflicts to have erupted since the end of the Second World War But although the war occurred in Europe s backyard and received significant media coverage in the West relatively little scholarly attention has been devoted to cultural representations of the conflict Stephen Harper analyses how the war has been depicted in global cinema and television over the past quarter of a century Focusing on the representation of some of the war's major themes including humanitarian intervention the roles of NATO and the UN genocide rape and ethnic cleansing Harper explores the role of popular media culture in reflecting reinforcing and sometimes contesting nationalist ideologies

Anthony Giddens Stjepan Mestrovic, 2005-08-31 Anthony Giddens is arguably the world's leading sociologist In this controversial contribution to the Giddens debate Stjepan Mestrovic takes up and criticizes the major themes of his work particularly the concept of high modernity as opposed to postmodernity and his attempted construction of a synthetic tradition based on human agency and structure Testing Giddens theories against what is happening in the real world from genocide in Africa to near secession in Quebec Mestrovic discerns in the construction of synthetic traditions not the promise of freedom held out by Giddens but rather the ominous potential for new forms of totalitarian control

Emotions and Risky Technologies Sabine Roeser, 2010-07-16 Acceptable Risk On the Rationality and Irrationality of Emotional Evaluations of Risk What is acceptable risk That question is appropriate in a number of different contexts political social ethical and scientific Thus the question might be whether the voting public will support a risky proposal or project whether people will buy or accept a risky product whether it is morally permissible to pursue this or that potentially harmful venture or whether it is wise or prudent to test or try out some possibly dangerous hypothesis or product But complicating all of these queries the sand in the machinery of rational decision making are the emotions It is often noted but too rarely studied that voters are swayed by their passions at least as much as they are convinced by rational arguments And it is obvious to advertisers and retailers that people are seduced by all sorts of appeals to their vanities their fears their extravagant hopes their insecurities At least one major thread of ethical discourse the one following Kant minimizes the importance of the emotions the inclinations in favor of an emphatically rational decision making process and it is worth mulling over the fact that many of those who do not accept Kant's ethical views more or less applaud his rejection of the moral sentiment theory of the time promoted by such luminary philosophers as David Hume and Adam Smith

Emotion and Social Theory Simon Williams, 2001-02-27 The emotions have traditionally been marginalized in mainstream social theory This book demonstrates the problems that this has caused and charts the resurgence of emotions in social theory today Drawing on a wide variety of sources both classical and contemporary Simon Williams treats the emotions as a universal feature of human life and our embodied relationship to the world He reflects and comments upon the turn towards the body and intimacy in social theory and explains what is important in current thinking about emotions In his doing so readers are provided with a critical assessment of various positions within the field including the strengths and weaknesses of poststructuralism and postmodernism for examining Emotions and Mass Atrocity Thomas Brudholm, Johannes Lang, 2018-03-22 The study of genocide and mass atrocity abounds with references to emotions fear anger horror shame and hatred Yet we don't understand enough about how ordinary emotions behave in such extreme contexts Emotions are not merely subjective and interpersonal phenomena they are also powerful social and political forces deeply involved in the history of mass violence Drawing on recent insights from philosophy psychology history and the social sciences this volume examines the emotions of perpetrators victims and bystanders Editors Thomas Brudholm and Johannes Lang have brought together an interdisciplinary group of prominent scholars to provide an in depth analysis of the nature value and role of emotions as they relate to the causes and dynamics of mass atrocities The result is a new perspective on the social political and moral dimensions of emotions in the history of collective violence and its aftermath

The Postmodern Challenge: Perspectives East and West
,2023-12-04 This volume is designed to bridge a gap in the current theoretical debate about the nature scope and relevance of postmodern perspectives in the humanist and social sciences in Eastern and Western Europe While the debate has been reasonably comprehensive and certainly abrasive in Western European and Anglophone countries it has signally failed to incorporate the viewpoints of Eastern European scholars and intellectuals Even the current appropriation of Mikhail Bakhtin as a prophet of the postmodern is paradoxically a monologic engagement with his thought rather than a dialogic encounter of cultures Doubtless different historical experiences ideology and social aspirations go some way to account for the weariness of Eastern Europe with postmodern challenge and its glad embrace by Western scholars The volume comprises some fifteen essays by leading historians literary theorists and social scientists from Western and Eastern Europe and America It has a threefold aim firstly to illuminate the distinctiveness of current Western and Eastern European theorizing about history and society secondly to reveal points of tension and disagreement and finally to open up a space for a meeting of seemingly incompatible worlds

Impediments to the Prevention and Intervention of Genocide Samuel Totten,2013 Academics NGOs the United Nations and individual nations are focused on the prevention and intervention of genocide Traditionally missions to prevent or intervene in genocide have been sporadic and under resourced The contributors to this volume consider some of the major stumbling blocks to the avoidance of genocide Bartrop and Totten argue that realpolitik is the major impediment to the elimination of genocide Campbell examines the lack of political will to confront genocide and Theriault describes how denial becomes an obstacle to intervention against genocide Loyle and Davenport discuss how intervention is impeded by a lack of reliable data on genocide violence and Macgregor presents an overview of the influence of the media Totten examines how the UN Convention on Genocide actually impedes anti genocide efforts and how the institutional configuration of the UN is itself often a stumbling block Addressing an issue that is often overlooked Travis examines the impact of global arms trade on genocide Finally Hiebert examines how international criminal prosecution of atrocities can impede preventive efforts and Hirsch provides an analysis of the strengths weaknesses and effectiveness of major international and national prescriptions developed over the last decade The result is a distinguished addition to Transaction s prestigious Genocide Studies series

poorly understood phenomenon In this provocative 2005 book Professor Vetlesen argues that to do evil is to intentionally inflict pain on another human being against his or her will and causing serious and foreseeable harm Vetlesen investigates why and in what sort of circumstances such a desire arises and how it is channeled or exploited into collective evil doing He argues that such evil doing pitting whole groups against each other springs from a combination of character situation and social structure By combining a philosophical approach inspired by Hannah Arendt a psychological approach inspired by C Fred Alford and a sociological approach inspired by Zygmunt Bauman and bringing these to bear on the Holocaust and ethnic cleansing in the former Yugoslavia Vetlesen shows how closely perpetrators victims and bystanders interact and how aspects of human agency are recognized denied and projected by different agents Proceedings of the 2022 Conference of The Computational Social Science Society of the Americas Zining Yang, Santiago Núñez-Corrales, 2023-10-10 This book contains a selection of the latest research in the field of computational social science CSS methods uses and results as presented at the 2022 annual conference of the Computational Social Science Society of the Americas CSSSA Computational social science CSS is the science that investigates social and behavioral dynamics through social simulation social network analysis and social media analysis The CSSSA is a professional society that aims to advance the field of computational social science in all areas including basic and applied orientations by holding conferences and workshops promoting standards of scientific excellence in research and teaching and publishing research findings and results The Dark Side of Democracy Michael Mann, 2005 Publisher Description Serbia's Secret War Philip J. Cohen, 1996 An entire piece of Serbian history is missing And in the middle of the latest Yugoslav war Europe's worst blood bath since World War II Serbian politicians propagandists and revisionist historians have made a cynical attempt at replacing the missing piece by rewriting the Holocaust record They claim that Serbs were not Nazi collaborators in genocide but purely victims of the same atrocities that befell the Jews and that Serbian aspirations for a Greater Serbia are not driven by a murderous nationalistic hatred but rather are propelled by a victim's desire to lay claim to a safe homeland a Serbian Promised Land Thus has the current spilling of blood been justified Philip J Cohen argues that the existence of such a propaganda campaign emanating from Belgrade began in the earliest days of the post World War II era and since then has been reflected in the world media as well as in popular commentary and scholarly analysis More astonishing is that this campaign has been widely successful particularly in Israel Remarkable for its broad portrayal and penetrating examination of the Yugoslav social and political experience Serbia's Secret War draws heavily on documents that have been previously unavailable to the West Some of the written record has been translated and is published here for the first time Destined to be regarded as an important contribution to the field Cohen's careful study of the Serbian role in the Second World War will dramatically alter how scholars policy makers and the general public view the bloodshed in the former Yugoslavia and how they will come to understand the reasons behind it Rethinking the Nature of War Isabelle Duyvesteyn, Jan Angstrom, 2005 Have globalization virulent ethnic differences and globally operating insurgents fundamentally changed the nature of war in the last decade Interpretations of war as driven by politics and state rationale formulated most importantly by the 19th century practitioner Carl von Clausewitz have received strong criticism Political explanations have been said to fall short in explaining conflicts in the Balkans Africa Asia and the attacks of 11 September 2001 in the United States This book re evaluates these criticisms not only by scrutinising Clausewitz s arguments and their applicability but also by a careful reading of the criticism itself In doing so it presents empirical evidence on the basis of several case studies addressing various aspects of modern war such as the actors conduct and purposes of war Kosovo Julie Mertus,1999 Explores the foundations of conflict in Kosovo charging that the international community s failure to support the Albanians in their initial passive resistance to Serbian repression led to violence Postemotional Society Stjepan Mestrovic,1996-12-23 With a foreword by David Riesman author of The Lonely Crowd Introducing a new term to the sociological lexicon postemotionalism Stjepan Mestrovic argues that the focus of postmodernism has been on knowledge and information and he demonstrates how the emotions in mass industrial societies have been neglected to devastating effect Using contemporary examples the author shows how emotion has become increasingly separated from action how in a world of disjointed and synthetic emotions social solidarity has become more problematic and how compassion fatigue has increasingly replaced political commitment and responsibility Mestrovic discusses the relation between knowledge and the emotions in thinkers as diverse as Durkheim Baudrillard Ritzer Riesman and Orwell This stimulating and provocative work concludes with a discussion of the postemotional society where peer groups replace the government as the means of social control Why the Nations Rage Christopher Catherwood,2002 This thoughtful book explores much of the background to the strife the globe faces today In particular Christopher Catherwood shows how religion and national pride which are supposed to be positive forces can become perverted ideologies that arouse hatred slaughter and war
