anyone passionate about teaching literature or creative writing Histories of the Future Alan Sandison, 2016-04-30 This collection of interdisciplinary essays examines some of the ways in which writers artists film makers strategists and political thinkers have imagined the future over the last two centuries Although a number of contributions discuss mainstream science fiction the collection's emphasis is not on any single genre but rather on the ways in which different histories technological cultural military ideological generate and inform different modes of speculation about things to come These histories also disclose that our patterns of expectation are much influenced by our relationship to the past Late modernist poetics Anthony Mellors, 2024-06-04 This book explores the uncanny afterlife of modernist ideals in the second half of the twentieth century Rejecting the familiar notion that modernism dissolved during the 1930s it argues that the fusion of rationalism and mysticism which characterises modernist poetics was sustained long after its politics had been discredited by the events of World War Two The book's central concern is why the aesthetic mysticism that Walter Benjamin called the faith of those who made common cause with Fascism continued to be a guiding principle for literary elites and countercultural movements alike New light is shed on the relationship between occultism and the Pound tradition especially in terms of Pound's influence on post 1945 Anglo American poetry and a critical theory of late modernism is offered which shows how belated notions of cultural redemption have survived in contemporary poetry This wide ranging contextual study focuses on the poetry of Ezra Pound Charles Olson Paul Celan and J H Prynne and explores the development of modernist culture through its theories of phenomenology psychoanalysis science ethnography and ancient history Disjunctive Poetics Peter Quartermain, 1992-06-26 Disjunctive Poetics examines some of the experimental contemporary writers including Stein and Zukofsky whose work forms a counterpoint to the mainstream writing of our time Peter Quartermain suggests that the explosion of such modern writing is linked to the severe political social and economic dislocation of non English speaking immigrants who arriving in America at the turn of the century found themselves uprooted from their tradition and disassociated from their culture Stan Brakhage the realm buster Marco Lori, Esther Leslie, 2018-01-10 Stan Brakhage's body of work counts as one of the most important within post war avant garde cinema and yet it has rarely been given the attention it deserves Over the years though diverse and original reflections have developed distancing his figure little by little from critical categories This collection of newly commissioned essays plus some important reprinted work queries some of the consensus on Brakhage's films In particular many of these essays revolve around the controversial issues of representation and perception This project sets out from the assumption that Brakhage's art is articulated primarily through opposing tensions which donate his figure and films an extraordinary depth even as they evince fleetingness elusivity and paradoxicality This collection aims not only to clarify aspects of Brakhage's art but also to show how his work is involved in a constant mediation between antinomies and opposites At the same time his art presents a multifaceted object endlessly posing new questions to the viewer for which no point of entry or perspective is preferred in respect to the others

Acknowledging this this volume hopes that the experience of his films will be revitalised Featuring topics as diverse as the technical and semantic ambiguity of blacks the fissures in mimetic representation of the it within the itself of an image the film maker as practical psychologist through cognitive theories the critique of ocularcentrism by mingling sight with other senses such as touch films that can actually philosophise in a Wittgensteinian way political guilt and collusion in aesthetic forms a disjunctive reflexive and phenomenological temporality realising Deleuze s image time and the echoes of Ezra Pound and pneumophantasmology in the quest of art as spiritual revelation this book addresses not only scholars but also is a thorough and thought provoking introduction for the uninitiated Contributors include Nicky Hamlyn Peter Mudie Paul Taberham Gareth Evans Rebecca A Sheehan Christina Chalmers Stephen Mooney and Marco Lori Stan Brakhage Marco Lori, Esther Leslie, 2018 Essays on the work of this iconic experimental filmmaker from a variety of scholars Stan Brakhage s body of work counts as one of the most important within post war avant garde cinema and yet it has rarely been given the attention it deserves Over the years though diverse and original reflections have developed distancing his figure little by little from critical categories This collection of newly commissioned essays plus some important reprinted work queries some of the consensus on Brakhage s films In particular many of these essays revolve around the controversial issues of representation and perception This project sets out from the assumption that Brakhage s art is articulated primarily through opposing tensions which donate his figure and films an extraordinary depth even as they evince fleetingness elusivity and paradoxicality This collection aims not only to clarify aspects of Brakhage s art but also to show how his work is involved in a constant mediation between antinomies and opposites At the same time his art presents a multifaceted object endlessly posing new questions to the viewer for which no point of entry or perspective is preferred in respect to the others discussed here by ten distinguished critics stimulated Pound's most important poetic encounters with the literature of Greece Rome China Tuscany England and the United States Fully half of these essays draw on previously unpublished manuscripts

Contemporary Olson David Herd, 2016-05-16 As poet critic theorist and teacher Charles Olson extended the possibilities of modern writing From Call Me Ishmael his pioneering study of Herman Melville to his epic poetic project The Maximus Poems Olson probed the relation between language space and community Writing in the aftermath of the Second World War he provided radical resources for the re-imagining of place and politics resources for collective thought and creative practice we are still learning how to use Re-situating Olson's work in relation both to his own moment and to current concerns the essays assembled in Contemporary Olson provide a major re-assessment of his place in postwar poetry and culture Through a series of contextualising chapters discussions of individual poems and reflections on Olson's legacy by leading international writers and critics the book presents a poet who still informs contemporary poetry whose thought and compositional innovations continue to provoke Remote as some of his fascinations must now seem Olson is shown nonetheless to offer a poetry and poetics that speaks clearly to our own fraught historical moment Contemporary Olson opens this major writer to new readings and new readers

Undeclared Chris Higgins, 2024-05-14 An imaginative tour of the contemporary university as it could be a place to discover self-knowledge meaning and purpose What if college were not just a means of acquiring credentials but a place to pursue our formation as whole persons striving to lead lives of meaning and purpose In Undeclared Chris Higgins confronts the contemporary university in a bid to reclaim a formative mission for higher education In a series of searching essays and pointed interludes Higgins challenges us to acknowledge how far our practices have drifted from our ideals asking What would it look like to build a college from the ground up to support self-discovery and personal integration What does it mean to be a public university and are there any left How can the humanities help the jobified university begin to take vocation seriously Cutting through the underbrush of received ideas Higgins follows the insight where it leads clearing a path from the corporate multiversity to the renaissance in higher education that was Black Mountain College and back again Along the way we tour a campus bent on becoming a shopping mall accompany John Dewey through a midlife crisis and witness the first happening Through diverse and grounded philosophical engagements Undeclared assembles the resources to expand the contemporary educational imagination Ad vivum?

Thomas Balfe, Joanna Woodall, Claus Zittel, 2019-06-07 The term ad vivum and its cognates al vivo au vif nach dem Leben and naer het leven have been applied since the thirteenth century to depictions designated as from to or after the life This book explores the issues raised by this vocabulary and related terminology with reference to visual materials produced and used in Europe before 1800 including portraiture botanical zoological medical and topographical images images of novel and newly discovered phenomena and likenesses created through direct contact with the object being depicted The designation ad vivum was not restricted to depictions made directly after the living model and was often used to advertise the claim of an image to be a faithful likeness or a bearer of reliable information Viewed as an assertion of accuracy or truth ad vivum raises a number of fundamental questions in the area of early modern epistemology questions about the value and prestige of visual and or physical contiguity between image and original about the kinds of information which were thought important and dependably transmissible in material form and about the roles of the artist in that transmission The recent interest of historians of early modern art in how value and meaning are produced and reproduced by visual materials which do not conform to the definition of art as unique invention and of historians of science and of art in the visualisation of knowledge has placed the questions surrounding ad vivum at the centre of their common concerns Contributors Thomas Balfe Jos Beltr n Carla Benzan Eleanor Chan Robert Felfe Mechthild Fend Sachiko Kusukawa Pieter Martens Richard Mulholland Noa Turel Joanna Woodall and Daan Van Heesch Little, Brown Book of Anecdotes Clifton Fadiman, 2009-10-31 Fadiman may do for the anecdote what Bartlett did for the quotation A thoroughly entertaining and useful reference source School Library Journal Along with an introduction an index of themes and a bibliography this A to Z collection includes anecdotes about over two thousand famous people from Alexander the Great to Muhammad Ali An enjoyable journey through history and popular culture it offers a blend of biographical tidbits with words of wisdom and just plain funny stories Tailor made for speech writers in search of the right story for a special occasion or for those who enjoy browsing among quotes from our brightest wordsmiths People National Review's Literary Network Stephen Schryer, 2024 Stephen Schryer traces the careers of novelists journalists and literary critics who wrote for William F Buckley Jr s National Review and highlights these writers enduring impact on movement conservatism W.H.Hudson And The Elusive Paradise David Miller, 1990-02-19

Books Are Made Out of Books Michael Lynn Crews, 2024-10-08 Cormac McCarthy told an interviewer for the New York Times Magazine that books are made out of books but he was famously unwilling to discuss how his own writing draws on the works of other writers Yet his novels and plays masterfully appropriate and allude to an extensive range of literary works demonstrating that McCarthy was well aware of literary tradition and deliberately situating himself in a knowing relationship to precursors In Books Are Made Out of Books Michael Lynn Crews thoroughly mines McCarthy s literary archive to identify over 150 writers and thinkers that McCarthy referenced in early drafts marginalia notes and correspondence Crews organizes the references into chapters devoted to McCarthy s published works the unpublished screenplay Whales and Men and McCarthy s correspondence This updated edition now examines McCarthy s final publications the novel The Passenger and its play like coda Stella Maris For each work Crews identifies authors artists or other cultural figures that McCarthy referenced gives the source of the reference in McCarthy s papers provides context for the reference as it appears in the archives and explains the significance of the reference to the novel or play that McCarthy was working on This groundbreaking exploration of McCarthy s literary influences vastly expands our understanding of how one of America s foremost authors engaged with the ideas images metaphors and language of other thinkers and made them
