Ellen Bradshaw Aitken (1961-2014), Arvind Sharma, 2017-03-15 First work to address the legacy of Wilfred Cantwell Smith and his influence on the development of religious studies and Islamic studies in the twentieth century This is the first work to address the legacy of Wilfred Cantwell Smith 1916 2000 whose intellectual and institutional contributions helped shape the field of religious studies in the latter half of the twentieth century As a young scholar Smith taught Indian and Islamic history in Lahore for several years and witnessed the partition of India Upon his return to North America he obtained his PhD at

Princeton University before embarking upon a long and distinguished career He founded the Institute of Islamic Studies at McGill University and served as director of the Center for the Study of World Religions at Harvard University Smith emphasized the place of the scholarly study of Islam in the Western academy long before Islam occupied its current position at the center of global politics challenged the notion of monolithic world religions and argued for the importance of dialogical processes and a personalist approach to the study of religion Contributors to this volume many of whom were Smith's students provide a wide ranging exploration of his influence and legacy Heirs of Abraham Bradford E. Hinze, Irfan A. Omar, 2013-01-09 Argues that collaboration and bonds of respect are possible between Muslim Jews and Christians today The three Abrahamic traditions have a long history of clashes often with disastrous results This book offers an alternative to those who see only a future like the past of increasing friction and violence Three of the most respected figures representing Catholic Christianity Judaism and Islam Archbishop Michael Fitzgerald Professor Reuven Firestone and Professor Mahmoud Ayoub show that collaboration can work that it is possible to foster mutual understanding and appreciation of the different traditions in practical ways Religious Perspectives Roger Lincoln Shinn, 1982 The Common Good and Christian Ethics David Hollenbach, 2002-08 The Common Good and Christian Ethics rethinks the ancient tradition of the common good in a way that addresses contemporary social divisions both urban and global David Hollenbach draws on social analysis moral philosophy and theological ethics to chart new directions in both urban life and global society He argues that the division between the middle class and the poor in major cities and the challenges of globalisation require a new commitment to the common good and that both believers and secular people must move towards new forms of solidarity Ignatian Spirituality in a Secular Age George Schner, 2006-01-01 While the textual focus of this collection of essays is the Spiritual Exercise of Ignatius of Loyola the essays are much more than textual analyses they deal with the tradition and institutions associated with Ignatian spirituality with historical and philosophical perspectives on Ignatian spirituality with the contemporary search for spiritual life In addition the question of the relationship of the contemporary believer to past events is addressed as well as the question of the relationship between spirituality and ministry The strong and effective combination of historical and contemporary concerns as well as of textual and spiritual concerns results in a volume of importance to students of religious history and of spirituality The analysis of the Exercises and the discussion of spiritual direction will also be of great value to ministers and pastors and to all those pursuing spiritual life in a secular age The World's Religious Traditions Frank Whaling, 2016-10-06 The aim of this book is to make a major contribution to the field of religious studies while at the same time paying tribute to the work of Wilfred Smith Although the basis of the chapters is provided by Smith's themes of faith and tradition and Smith's approach to the study of religion this book stands in its own right as a significant addition to both content and method in the global history of religions First published in 1984 it includes contributions by Geoffrey Parrinder Annemarie Schimmel George Rupp Ninian Smart and others African Catholicism and

Hermeneutics of Culture Joseph Ogbonnaya, 2014-08-05 The study of Christianity in the non Western world reveals a demographic shift in the center of Christianity from the Northern Hemisphere to the South But the contradictory aspect of the massive African conversion to Christian faith is the grinding poverty level in Africa This condition raises important theological and ecclesiological questions that demand urgent answers Therefore the research objectives of this book are to examine African Catholicism's involvement in human promotion and to seek a new way of theologizing Christianity that moves sub Saharan African peoples to action against the massive injustices that keep them poor Drawing on Africae Munus the Post Synodal Apostolic Exhortation of the Second African Synod 2011 and Bernard Lonergan's notion of culture African Catholicism and Hermeneutics of Culture argues that to truly be the spiritual lung of humanity African Catholicism must appropriate the Christian message to transform African attitudes and personhood and so foster a self reliant commitment to integral African development
