Fools And Other Stories:

Telling Stories Jacqueline Bardolph, André Viola, Jean-Pierre Durix, 2001 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research

Fools and other Stories Njabulo S. Ndebele, 2015-04-01 Fools and Other Stories is an intricate and subtle collection that deals with the formative experiences of growing up in a Johannesburg township during the apartheid years These five stories are part of a long project in which I am attempting to explore imaginatively various aspects of life in the community I grew up in in South Africa The first part which these five stories cover deals with the themes of early childhood and adolescence In the second part I hope to explore adult life up to old age lastly I want to imaginatively study the movement of social change Njabulo S Ndebele Fools and Other Stories [by] Njabulo S. Ndebele, 1991

Apartheid Narratives Nahem Yousaf, 2001 In an engaging and dynamic collection of essays on South African writing an international cast of contributors pay detailed attention to the shifting parameters of scholarly debates on apartheid and the apartheid era Investigating a range of literary and critical perspectives on a period that shaped the literature of South Africa for much of the twentieth century the contributors offer a rich survey The volume focuses on internationally acclaimed writers Nadine Gordimer and J M Coetzee as well as those writers who are yet to receive sustained critical attention Mtutuzeli Matshoba Alex La Guma Bessie Head Ahmed Essop Ronnie Govender Apartheid Narratives will be welcomed by academics and students of South African writing as a stimulating collection which maps the literary terrain of apartheid additional forty titles Twenty four books by Pulitzer Prize winners and twenty six books by Nobel Prize in Literature winners are among the works listed in this reference guide Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide In Bad Company and Other Stories Rolf Boldrewood, 2020-08-03 Reproduction of the original In Bad Company and Other Stories by Rolf Boldrewood In Bad Company and Other Stories Rolf Boldrewood, 2020-07-27 Reproduction of the original In Bad Company and Other Stories by Rolf Boldrewood The Death of Ivan Ilyitch and Other Stories graf Leo Tolstoy, 1899

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies A Study of Njabulo

Ndebele's Fools and Other Stories Jacqueline Ruth Savage, 1989 Winifred Sanford Betty Holland Wiesepape, 2013-01-02 Winifred Sanford is generally regarded by critics as one of the best and most important early twentieth century Texas women writers despite publishing only a handful of short stories before slipping into relative obscurity First championed by her mentor H L Mencken and published in his magazine The American Mercury many of Sanford's stories were set during the Texas oil boom of the 1920s and 1930s and offer a unique perspective on life in the boomtowns during that period Four of her stories were included in The Best American Short Stories of 1926 Questioning the sudden end to Sanford s writing career Wiesepape a leading literary historian of Texas women writers delved into the author s previously unexamined private papers and emerged with an insightful and revealing study that sheds light on both Sanford s abbreviated career and the domestic lives of women at the time The first in depth account of Sanford s life and work Wiesepape s biography discusses Sanford s fiction through the lens of the sociohistorical contexts that shaped and inspired it In addition Wiesepape has included two previously unpublished stories as well as eighteen previously unpublished letters to Sanford from Mencken Winifred Sanford is an illuminating biography of one of the state s unsung literary jewels and an important and much needed addition to the often overlooked field of Texas women s writing The Columbia Guide to South African Literature in English Since 1945 Gareth Cornwell,Dirk Klopper,Craig Mackenzie,2010-04-13 From the outset South Africa s history has been marked by division and conflict along racial and ethnic lines From 1948 until 1994 this division was formalized in the National Party s policy of apartheid Because apartheid intruded on every aspect of private and public life South African literature was preoccupied with the politics of race and social engineering Since the release from prison of Nelson Mandela in 1990 South Africa has been a new nation in the making inspired by a nonracial idealism yet beset by poverty and violence South African writers have responded in various ways to Njabulo Ndebele s call to rediscover the ordinary The result has been a kaleidoscope of texts in which evolving cultural forms and modes of identity are rearticulated and explored An invaluable guide for general readers as well as scholars of African literary history this comprehensive text celebrates the multiple traditions and exciting future of the South African voice Although the South African Constitution of 1994 recognizes no fewer than eleven official languages English has remained the country s literary lingua franca This book offers a narrative overview of South African literary production in English from 1945 to the postapartheid present An introduction identifies the most interesting and noteworthy writing from the period Alphabetical entries provide accurate and objective information on genres and writers An appendix lists essential authors published before 1945 New Socialist ,1986 Listen & Other Stories Liam Callanan,2016-04-01 Listen is a book where characters ask readers to do just that listen to their stories especially because many aren t the type of people who often get listened to even though they should These characters trials missed connections and sundry challenges are full of surprises some good some bad some funny some wise and some all this at once Perhaps most surprising of all there s tenderness here and a lot of heart which often gets the collection s characters into a lot of trouble Animals and Desire in South African Fiction Jason D. Price,2017-07-15 This book considers the political potential of affective experiences of desire as reflected in contemporary South African literature Jason Price argues that definitions of desire deployed by capitalist and colonial culture maintain social inequality by managing relations to ensure a steady flow of capital and pleasure for the dominant classes whereas affective encounters with animals reveal the nonhuman nature of desire a biopower that in its unpredictability can frustrate regimes of management and control Price wonders how animals different desires might enable new modes of thought to positively transform and resist the status quo This book contends that South African literary works employ nonhuman desire and certain indigenous notions of desire to imagine a South Africa that can be markedly different from the past White Nights and Other Stories Fyodor Dostoyevsky, 2011-10-20 Welcome to the introspective world of White Nights and Other Stories by Fyodor Dostoyevsky where tales of love loneliness and existential longing unfold with profound insight and emotional depth Explore the complexities of human emotion and moral dilemmas through Dostoyevsky's poignant storytelling and psychological insight From the poignant romance of White Nights to the existential crises in Notes from Underground Dostoyevsky's stories offer a profound exploration of the human condition As readers immerse themselves in Dostoyevsky's narratives White Nights and Other Stories invites reflection on themes of isolation redemption and the search for meaning Dostoyevsky's ability to capture the inner turmoil of his characters and their moral dilemmas creates a compelling narrative that resonates across generations Since its publication White Nights and Other Stories has been acclaimed for its psychological depth and exploration of existential themes Dostoyevsky's insights into human nature and his portrayal of moral dilemmas continue to captivate readers offering timeless reflections on the complexities of life Step into the world of White Nights and Other Stories and experience a collection that delves into the depths of human emotion and existential angst Whether you're drawn to philosophical fiction or intrigued by tales of moral complexity Dostoyevsky's stories offer a profound journey into the inner lives of his characters Reflect on the human condition with White Nights and Other Stories as Fyodor Dostoyevsky invites you to explore the complexities of love loneliness and existential longing Discover why these timeless tales continue to resonate with readers offering profound insights into the universal struggles of the human spirit
