The Fruit of Righteousness Paul Murray, 2022-02-16 Nowhere in the Bible does God promise an instant fix Our culture is so insistent on immediate results We want fast food quick service and instant pudding We hate waiting in line for anything If our smartphone is 4G we must have 5G Everything must be quicker and faster It's not that God can't wait or never does an instant fix Lazarus come forth was an instant fix Lazarus got up and walked out of the tomb Tabatha arise and the little girl got up off her deathbed That was an instant fix Be still and the winds and the waves instantly became calm That's 5G speed But instant fix is not the norm in the Christian life Instant healings are not typical and it has nothing to do with a lack of faith A jackpot lotto winning is seldom an excellent financial solution to your problems and justice is rarely immediate nor swift That is just the way things are in a broken world The same was true for Israel It took seven long grueling years to conquer Canaan Later in the book we will see why it took so long The norm for gaining victory over sin and becoming mature in our faith usually takes a lifetime As someone once said We are all men under construction As long as we are still above ground God is still working on us Israel has now conquered the promised land There are no more threats from the various Canaanite tribes and there is peace across the land Finally after generations of waiting upon God to receive the promised inheritance the spoils of the land are about to be divided among the tribes of Judah But with each inheritance there comes some serious responsibility Each individual tribe was to finish the job of removing the enemy for the land they inherited The mandate was not live and let live or indenture the indigenous or settle for coexistence The remnant of enemy left in the land was to be completely driven out To fail to do that would threaten Israel's very existence in the promised land Were they willing to finish the job The obstacles loomed large but God had proven His ability to move mountains Starting strong does not win any race The race is won when you cross the finish line Read on and learn how to finish the race The Fruit of Righteousness Joshua 12 14 is the third and final part of the three part series Pagans Prostitutes and Other Problems A Simple Man's Commentary on Joshua
