Peter and the Beloved Disciple Kevin Quast,1989-10-01 The common supposition that the Fourth Gospel presents a rivalry between Peter and the Beloved Disciple in which Peter is subordinated to the hero of the Johannine Community is here subjected to fresh scrutiny After establishing working hypotheses regarding the Johannine Community and the function of representative figures in the Fourth Gospel the author first examines the function of Peter independently of the Beloved Disciple Here he is the exemplary leader of the Twelve In those passages where the two characters are juxtaposed it is evident that the Beloved Disciple is not inordinately exalted above Peter who in fact enjoys a comparable status Peter and the Beloved Disciple have complementary roles to play in relation to Jesus and his unfolding hour John 20 shows the Beloved Disciple as the example of a true believing disciple of Jesus while concerned to give appropriate respect and support to the Apostolic stream of traditions associated with Peter The Gospel appendix ch 21 is concerned to hold together both sorts of traditions and allegiances Finally the author shows how the Gospel as a whole works coherently to encourage a wider view of Christian intercommunity unity after the death of the Beloved Disciple      The ABC of Sunday Matters Mark O'Brien,2013-10-01 This book provides reflections on the Sunday Bible readings in the Roman Catholic Lectionary for Years A B and C of the liturgical cycle They previously appeared in separate volumes of Sunday Matters published by ATF Theology in the Dominican Series They have now been combined in this single volume colour coded for easier use and with a revised general introduction and introduction to the Gospel of Matthew Like the previous volumes this one is intended to assist those preparing homilies and those with a desire to understand a little more deeply the readings used in the Sunday liturgy

Guide for Covenant Discipleship Groups Gayle Turner Watson, 2011-07-11 Covenant Discipleship Groups have a long history of helping Christians grow as disciples Based on the early Methodist class meetings Covenant Discipleship Groups provide a way for Christians today to be accountable disciples of Jesus Christ Q A s Q WHAT IS A COVENANT DISCIPLESHIP GROUP A Covenant Discipleship Groups consists of up to seven persons who meet together for one hour each week to hold themselves mutually accountable for their discipleship They do this by means of a covenant that they have written Q WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF A COVENANT DISCIPLESHIP GROUP A Covenant Discipleship Groups are intended solely for mutual accountability and prayerful support for living as disciples in the world They are not where our discipleship happens but where we make sure that it happens Q WHY DOES THE GROUP NEED A COVENANT A The covenants we make with one another help us keep our covenant with God We make covenants with one another because we live in a world that has yet to accept God s salvation We constantly face temptations to turn away from God and we need some means of mutual support John Wesley and the early Methodists understood this need and saw that nothing short of binding themselves to mutual accountability would suffice By the grace of God they agreed to watch over each other in love Q WHY JOIN A

COVENANT DISCIPLESHIP GROUP A By joining with other Christians in a weekly meeting members of Covenant Discipleship Groups learn to center their lives on Jesus Christ by following his teachings and supporting one another in living out the basics of Christian discipleship Q WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO ME IN A COVENANT DISCIPLESHIP GROUP A You will become more aware of God s grace in your life You will find new ways of serving God and your neighbor You will find your understanding of God s will greatly enhanced Q How WILL THIS BOOK HELP ME A This handbook is primarily a practical reference manual for starting developing sustaining and incorporating Covenant Discipleship Groups into the mission and ministry of the church

Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Christian Humanism Jens Zimmermann,2019-06-13 Jens Zimmermann locates Bonhoeffer within the Christian humanist tradition extending back to patristic theology He begins by explaining Bonhoeffer s own use of the term humanism and Christian humanism and considering how his criticism of liberal Protestant theology prevents him from articulating his own theology rhetorically as a Christian humanism He then provides an in depth portrayal of Bonhoeffer s theological anthropology and establishes that Bonhoeffer s Christology and attendant anthropology closely resemble patristic teaching The volume also considers Bonhoeffer s mature anthropology focusing in particular on the Christian self It introduces the hermeneutic quality of Bonhoeffer s theology as a further important feature of his Christian humanism In contrast to secular and religious fundamentalisms Bonhoeffer offers a hermeneutic understanding of truth as participation in the Christ event that makes interpretation central to human knowing Having established the hermeneutical structure of his theology and his personalist configuration of reality Zimmermann outlines Bonhoeffer s ethics as Christformation Building on the hermeneutic theology and participatory ethics of the previous chapters he then shows how a major part of Bonhoeffer s life and theology namely his dedication to the Bible as God s word is also consistent with his Christian humanism

Seeds of the Kingdom Anna L. Peterson,2005-11-17 In these skeptical and disillusioned times there are still groups of people scattered throughout the world who are trying to live out utopian dreams These communities challenge the inevitability and morality of dominant political and economic models By putting utopian religious ethics into practice they attest to the real possibility of social alternatives In Seeds of the Kingdom Anna L Peterson reflects on the experiences of two very different communities one inhabited by impoverished former refugees in the mountains of El Salvador and the other by Amish farmers in the Midwestern U S What makes these groups stand out among advocates of environmental protection political justice and sustainable development is their religious orientation They aim without apology to embody the reign of God on earth The Salvadoran community is grounded in Roman Catholic social thought while the Amish adhere to Anabaptist tradition Peterson offers a detailed portrait of these communities history social organization religious life environmental values and agricultural practices She discovers both practical and ideological commonalities in these two comparatively successful and sustainable communities including a strong collective identity deep attachment to local landscapes a desire to preserve non human as well as human lives and perhaps unexpectedly a utopian horizon that provides both goals and the hope of reaching them By examining the process by which people struggle to live according to a transcendent value system she sheds light on both the actual and the potential place of religion in public life Peterson argues that the Amish and Salvadoran communities geographically and culturally removed from the industrialized West have relevance for the political and environmental problems of the developed world These communities have succeeded in the face of significant internal and external challenges offering important practical and theoretical lessons on how to achieve ecological sustainability and social justice in the wider world     The Reflective Disciple Roger Walton,2014-07-24 Helps readers to explore the concept of discipleship beginning with the New Testament and through examining snapshots of various patterns of discipleship as well as reflecting on discipleship in our contemporary context and setting
