Football That Won:

The Unanimous Champions of College Football, 1869-2019 Robert J. Reid, 2022-05-12 In the 150 years of college football history the national championship has been decided by unanimous vote only 33 times This book analyzes the various methods of selecting these champions and what made the teams special Drawing on archives and early published works a firsthand description of the 1869 inaugural game between Princeton and Rutgers is provided along with details of how these earliest teams were managed The contributions and innovations of Walter Camp the Father of Football are explored as is the evolution of the game itself Each unanimous season since the turn of the 20th century from Yale in 1900 to LSU in 2019 is covered in detail with a brief history of each school s football program The question is there a best ever team is explored

Football Montague Shearman, 1901 Encyclopedia of British Football Richard William Cox, Dave Russell, Wray Vamplew, 2002 This reference work aims to provide sports enthusiasts journalists librarians students and scholars with an authoritative source of information on a comprehensive range of subjects covering the history and organization of football in Britain Over 250 entries focus on key organisations or individuals famous clubs major competitions events venues and incidents institutions and organisations as well as key issues such as gender racism commercialization professionalism and drugs alcohol and football Football, the Rugby Union Game Marshall, 1892 The Athletic news football annual Athletic news, 1902 Garry Grayson at Leonx High ; Or, The Champions of the Football League Elmer A.
