

Children's Footprints

As you walk
down life's upward path,
Your footprints remain in the sand
And because you're with our Lord
He helps when you need it most.

He will never leave any child,
He will never leave you alone
In when life is most difficult, don't be surprised,
That the set of prints is not your own.

At first, you may not understand,
Why can you only see His, you say? Why?
Child, this is where the Lord picks you up,
And carries you along the way.

Thompson Conducting excavations for the Peabody Museum of Harvard University Thompson recovered almost thirty thousand artifacts most ceremonially broken and many beautifully preserved by burial in the deep silt at the bottom of the well The materials were sent to the Peabody Museum where they remained unexhibited for over seventy years In 1984 for the first time nearly three hundred objects of gold jade copper pottery wood copal textile and other materials from the collection were gathered into a traveling interpretive exhibition No other archaeological exhibition had previously given this glimpse into Maya ritual life because no other collection had objects such as those found in the Sacred Cenote Moreover the objects from the Cenote come from throughout Mesoamerica and lower Central America representing many artistic traditions The exhibit and this its accompanying catalog marked the first time all of the different kinds of offerings have ever been displayed together and the first time many have been published Essays by Gordon R.
