Christian discourse about the nature and life of God This second volume proceeds on the basis of the presuppositions of the symbol those implicit attestations that permit the possibility of divine suffering that which constitutes divine vulnerability with respect to creation The author investigates two divine wounds or modes of divine suffering to which the larger family of testimonies normally attest 1 divine grief or suffering due to human sin or betrayal by the beloved human and 2 divine self sacrifice or suffering for the beloved human in its bondage to sin or misery so as to establish the possibility of redemption and reconciliation
