Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world. Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form, explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important. Similarly, an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel, not only from analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre. A wide range of topic entries explore the history, criticism, theory, production, dissemination and reception of the novel. A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world A Companion to Modernist Literature and Culture David Bradshaw, Kevin J. H. Dettmar, 2008-04-15 The Companion combines a broad grounding in the essential texts and contexts of the modernist movement with the unique insights of scholars whose careers have been devoted to the study of modernism. An essential resource for students and teachers of modernist literature and culture. Broad in scope and comprehensive in coverage. Includes more than 60 contributions from some of the most distinguished modernist scholars on both sides of the Atlantic. Brings together entries on elements of modernist culture, contemporary intellectual and aesthetic movements and all the genres of modernist writing and art. Features 25 essays on the signal texts of modernist literature from James Joyce's Ulysses to Zora Neale Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God. Pays close attention to both British and American modernism The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2009-07-23 Postmodernist literature embraces a wide range of forms and perspectives including texts that are primarily self-reflexive texts that use pastiche burlesque parody intertextuality and hybrid forms to create textual realities that either run in opposition to or in parallel with an external reality fabrications that develop both of these strategies texts that ironize their relationship to reality works that use the aspects already noted to more fully engage with political or cultural realities texts that deal with history as a fiction and texts that elude categorization even within the variety already explored For example in fiction a postmodernist novel might tell a story about a writer struggling with writing only perhaps to find that he is a character in a book by another writer struggling to write a book The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and the variety of forms that have been produced This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first century operates 100

Designs of Darkness in Contemporary American Fiction Arthur M. Saltzman, 2016-11-11 In Designs of Darkness Arthur M Saltzman examines some of the ways in which fiction has traditionally conspired to promote a goal oriented vision of the work of art and explores the ways in which postmodern or postrealist fiction consistently and unavoidably subverts the clarity of this vision Offering readings of works by well known authors including Barthelme Doctorow DeLillo and Hakes as well as works by lesser known writers Auster Gangemi Saltzman concentrates on the breakdown of epiphany in recent fiction both as philosophical motive and as structural foundation In contemporary fiction Saltzman contends ambiguities blossom far beyond our capacities to stabilize summarize or restore them to sense The old rules of the game in which a reader looking for truth can expect come sort of satisfactory resolution no longer apply Literature now comes out of the answerless Designs of Darkness in Contemporary American Fiction is a valuable new resource for scholars and students of contemporary literature Emerging Vectors of Narratology Per Krogh Hansen, John Pier, Philippe Roussin, Wolf Schmid, 2017-08-07 Narratology has been flourishing in recent years thanks to investigations into a broad spectrum of narratives at the same time diversifying its theoretical and disciplinary scope as it has sought to specify the status of narrative within both society and scientific research The diverse endeavors engendered by this situation have brought narrative to the forefront of the social and human sciences and have generated new synergies in the research environment Emerging Vectors of Narratology brings together 27 state of the art contributions by an international panel of authors that provide insight into the wealth of new developments in the field The book consists of two sections Contexts includes articles that reframe and refine such topics as the implied author narrative causation and transmedial forms of narrative it also investigates various historical and cultural aspects of narrative from the narratological perspective Openings expands on these and other questions by addressing the narrative turn cognitive issues narrative complexity and metatheoretical matters The book is intended for narratologists as well as for readers in the social and human sciences for whom narrative has become a crucial matrix of inquiry Being Posthuman Zahi Zalloua, 2020-12-10 Posthumanism is both a descriptive and a prescriptive term Firstly it registers a shift beginning in the late 1960s and epitomized by Foucault's the death of Man Secondly it refers to the future and a new relationship with the non human along with a different understanding of human exceptionalism In Being Posthuman Ontologies of the Future Zahi Zalloua interrogates this future and shows that post does not necessarily mean after or that what comes after is more advanced than what has gone before He pursues this line of inquiry across four distinct yet interrelated figures cyborgs animals objects and racialized and excluded others These figures disrupt the narrative of the human and its singularity and by reading them together Zalloua determines that it is only when posthumanist discourse is combined with psychoanalysis that subjectivity can be properly examined The Routledge Companion to Narrative Theory Paul Dawson, Maria Mäkelä, 2022-07-18 The Routledge Companion to Narrative Theory brings together top scholars in the field to explore the significance of narrative to pressing social cultural and theoretical issues How does narrative both inform and limit the way we think today From conspiracy theories and social media movements to racial politics and climate change future scenarios the reach is broad This volume is distinctive for addressing the complicated relations between the interdisciplinary narrative turn in the academy and the contemporary boom of instrumental storytelling in the public sphere The scholars collected here explore new theories of causality experientiality and fictionality challenge normative modes of storytelling and offer polemical accounts of narrative fiction nonfiction and video games Drawing upon the latest research in areas from cognitive sciences to complexity theory the volume provides an accessible entry point for those new to the myriad applications of narrative theory and a point of
