dimensions of the subject and its multifarious ways of world making represent the central challenge among the concerns of the humanities. The role of literature and the arts in the formation of cultural and personal identities, theoretical and political approaches to the relation between self and other, the familiar and the foreign have become key issues in literary and cultural studies. Forms of expressivity and expression and question of mediation as well as new enquiries into ethics have characterized the intellectual energies of the past decade. The aim of Borderlands is to represent a variety of approaches to questions of border crossing and boundary transgression approaches from different angles and different disciplines but all converging in their own way on the post colonial paradigm. Topics discussed include globalization, cartography and ontology, transitional identity, ecocritical sensibility, questions of the application of post coloniality, gender and sexuality and attitudes towards space and place. As well as studies of the cinema of the settler colonies, the films of Neil Jordan and Othering in Canadian sports journalism, there are treatments of the Nigerian novel, South African prison memoirs and African women's writing. Authors examined include Elizabeth Bowen, Bruce Chatwin, Mohamed Choukri, Nuruddin Farah, Jamaica Kincaid, Pauline Melville, Bharati Mukherjee, Michael Ondaatje and Leslie Marmon Silko. Gospelbound Collin Hansen, Sarah Eekhoff Zylstra, 2021-04-06. A profound exploration of how to hold on to hope when our unchanging faith collides with a changing culture from two respected Christian storytellers and thought leaders. Offers neither spin control nor image maintenance for the evangelical tribe but genuine hope. Russell Moore, president of ERLC. As the pressures of health warnings, economic turmoil and partisan politics continue to rise, the influence of gospel-focused Christians seems to be waning. In the public square and popular opinion, we are losing our voice right when it's needed most for Christ's glory and the common good. But there's another story unfolding too if you know where to look. In Gospelbound, Collin Hansen and Sarah Eekhoff Zylstra counter these growing fears with a robust message of resolute hope for anyone hungry for good news. Join them in exploring profound stories of Christians who are quietly changing the world in the name of Jesus, from the wild world of digital media to the stories of ancient saints and unsung contemporary activists on the frontiers of justice and mercy. Discover how in these dark times the light of Jesus shines even brighter. You haven't heard the whole story. And that's good news.

Three Perspectives: Jewish, Christian, and Muslim Steven H. Propp, 2009-12-30. You're Jewish, aren't you? This blunt question is the way that college freshman Richard Cohn is introduced to an outspoken fellow student named Dov Epstein who calls himself a Messianic Jew and believes that God has a special purpose for the Jewish people in these Last Days. Raised by secular Jewish parents, Richard is completely oblivious to his own Jewish background until this ongoing dialogue forces him to confront his own heritage. The two young men vigorously argue with each other over the interpretation of the Hebrew Bible, particularly its reputed predictions of a Messiah. Christian doctrines such as the Trinity and most significantly about the identity and significance of Jesus of Nazareth. The rigorous process of self-examination this initiates leads Richard to embrace his Jewish identity even as he vehemently denies the same for Dov. The two ultimately become fast friends but as they progress from an academic environment to the professional world they are challenged by racist statements made by prominent national figures anti Semitic doctrines such as Christian Identity which teaches that white Anglo Saxons are the true Israel and also purported scholars who deny the reality of the Holocaust itself Circumstances in life connect them with a young Iranian migr named Jahangir Khatami whose Muslim beliefs conflict strongly with their own Yet when a violent incident brings the three of them together they are forced to reexamine not just their differences but their similarities While they clash over the ideals of Zionism and its ramifications in the modern State of Israel they are united in their horror over the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 Join a diverse cast of characters some of whom appeared in the authors earlier book Beyond Heaven and Earth in a probing exploration that may help you reconsider just what it means to be Jewish Christian or Muslim in the modern world

Twentieth-Century Lutheran Theologians Mark C. Mattes, 2013-08-14 This collection of essays examines important twentieth century Lutheran theologians including European and North American voices Each essay provides an overview of the life and thought of important confessional Lutherans who shaped theology with an ecumenical world wide impact The focus here is not on later twentieth century figures but earlier ones selected similar to the spirit manifest in Karl Barth s contention lest we forget where contemporary theology came from Protestant Theology From Rousseau to Ritschl The essays composed over the last five years were initiated by Lutheran Quarterly in order to assess our recent past as we move into a new millennium The goal of each author each a leading theologian has been to describe each thinker s life and vocation and how each thinker s work continues to impact theology today

The Christian College and the Meaning of Academic Freedom William C. Ringenberg, 2016-04-08 The Christian College and the Meaning of Academic Freedom is a study of the past record and current practice of the Protestant colleges in America in the quest to achieve intellectual honesty within academic community William C Ringenberg lays out the history of academic freedom in higher education in America including its European antecedents from the perspective of modern Christian higher education He discusses the Christian values that provide context for the idea of academic freedom and how they have been applied to the nation s Christian colleges and universities The book also dissects a series of recent case studies on the major controversial intellectual issues within and in some cases about the Christian college community Ringenberg ably analyzes the ways in which these academic institutions have evolved over time outlining their efforts to evolve and remain relevant while maintaining their core values and historic identities
