Mindful Teaching Practices for Black Male

Achievement Theodore S. Ransaw, 2022-09-10 All Black males are born with dreams and aspirations. However, Black male dreams are often deferred when they leave the classroom at the end of the day. Mindful Teaching Practices for Black Male Achievement was created to be a survival guide for new teachers with short and to the point content and structured reflective exercises for professional development as well as learning communities. This resource contains both research-based and classroom-based content that includes practical resources including Expository real world vignettes to ground each chapter and to set the tone for reflective practice. Reflective exercises for individual or group collaboration that facilitate positive internal shifts. Prolepsis approaches that help the reader plan for future success utilizing personal goal setting. Extended activities that build on and support positive educational outcomes with Black males in a way that affirms Black male identity are found in the toolkit. Also in the toolkit, the reader will find sample letter templates to advocate for Black males, intervention plans, student efficacy surveys, and user-friendly best practices for closing achievement gaps for Black males by grade level.

Racial Structure and Radical Politics in the African Diaspora James L. Conyers, 2017-07-05 This is a must-read book for anyone interested in the areas of racial theory and racial relations, multicultural and polarized religions, and the making of African personality and culture. In keeping with earlier volumes in the series, it emphasizes the cross-fertilization of Africa and the world. In Binga Bank: The Development of the Black Metropolis, Beth Johnson gives an historic look at the opening of the Binga Bank, its founder, and how the bank helped stimulate the black metropolis in Chicago. Black on the Block takes a look at life in the community of North Kenwood, Oakland, California. Mark Christian describes what it is like to be a member in the African diaspora in the United States and United Kingdom. In the racial theory and racial relations area, Clarence Tally's The Race Concept and Racial Structure argues that the study of race has become dominated by the idea that race is socially constructed. Reiland Rabaka analyzes discourse on the process of awarding reparations to people of African origin. Paula A. Moore explains why people of African descent with mental health problems do not receive treatment. Patriot Day focuses on the emergence and growth of Islam in America and its struggle to connect with America's cultural heritage. Edward Wilmot Blyden and the African Personality by James Conyers reviews Blyden's ideas and beliefs, challenging the European worldview. Cultural Helix Theory examines the most fundamental component of African culture: language and how it affects the black community. Black in the Saddle by Demetrius W. Pearson chronicles the professional and personal experiences of Willie Thomas, an African American cowboy.

Afrocentricidade Elisa Larkin Nascimento, 2013-02-17 Esta antologia reúne textos de estudiosos e ativistas da abordagem afrocentrada. Apresenta a postura básica dessa linha de pensamento e seus fundamentos teóricos, bem como reflexões e levantamentos sobre sua presença no Brasil, acompanhados de trabalhos sobre temas específicos como psicologia e a mulher.
