From Village to Suburb Fu'ād Ishāq Khūrī, 1975 Monograph on urban development in Lebanon with particular reference to the suburban development of a small village in the Beirut urban area includes a bibliography pp 251 to 265 diagrams map references and statistical tables Shi'i Sectarianism in the Middle East Elisheva Machlis, 2014-09-17 The eruption of violent sectarianism in Iraq following the US invasion in 2003 brought the question of Sunni Shi'i relations in the country to the forefront of the international public agenda It also strengthened the popular belief that contemporary Shi'ism is inherently sectarian Yet several decades earlier Ayatollah Khomeini had declared an Islamic revolution and downplayed its Shi'i origins and links So what is the true orientation of Shi'i Islam in the contemporary era and how did modernisation alter its sectarian affiliation This book contends that early Shi'i reformist thought set the foundations for a more universal oriented Shi'ism Prominent reformists in the first half of the twentieth century from the holy cities of Karbala and Najaf in Iraq and from the Shi'i centres in Southern Lebanon played a significant role in the renewal of Shi'ism and laid the groundwork for its reinvention in the modern era Exploring this shift towards a more ecumenical perception of Islam Elisheva Machlis here provides a fresh perspective on inter sectarian relations in contemporary Iraq and illuminates the intellectual roots of the Islamic revolution by examining networks of Shi'i scholars such as Mu'ammad usayn K shif al Ghi and Mu sin al Am n al mil operating within a more globalised Muslim world Drawing on the experiences of early Shi'i reformists such as Abd al usayn Sharaf al D n al M saw in Lebanon and Mu'ammad Jaw d Mughniyya in Damascus this book gives new insight on the future of inter Muslim relations at a time of growing inter sectarian contention from the Iran Iraq war to the post 2003 Sunni Shi'i conflict in Iraq and al Qa ida s anti Shi'i message taking into account questions of theology historiography jurisprudence and politics which all played a vital role in the transition to the contemporary era The author here analyses the broad scholarly connections between Iran Iraq and Lebanon in the twentieth century while debating paramount questions of leadership identity and group membership in the development of modern Shi'ism Examining the relationship between intellectual thought and socio political development in the region this book provides a new perspective concerning the future of an increasingly globalised Muslim world and will prove essential reading for students and specialists

The Breakdown of the State in Lebanon, 1967-1976 Farid El Khazen, 2020-12-10 Why did the Lebanese state the most open and democratic political system in the Middle East break down between 1967 and 1976 In this major contribution to the debate Fazel el Khazen rejects the standard explanations of the Lebanese Civil War and argues instead that the causes were due to the official state ideology which recognized diversity dissent and a highly pluralistic population and then specific external factors pressures from the Arab Israeli Conflict inter Arab rivalries and the Palestine Liberation Organization s close connection to Lebanese politics Using an historical analysis el Khazen sheds light on the political situation of the country in the lead up to the conflict and the major role Lebanon s neighbours had in the events The detailed and comprehensive account uses interviews with the key protagonists in the civil war and analysis of unpublished sources to reveal how and why the breakdown took place The Mexican Mahjar Camila Pastor, 2017-12-06 This prize winning study of Levantine migration to Mexico brings a new and revelatory light to the subject Christina Civantos author of Between Argentines and Arabs In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries migration from the Middle East brought hundreds of thousands of people to the Americas After a pause during World War I this intense mobility resumed in the 1920s and continued through the 1940s under the French Mandate A significant number of these migrants settled in Mexico building transnational lives The Mexican Mahjar provides the first global history of Middle Eastern migrations to Mexico Making unprecedented use of French colonial archives and historical ethnography Camila Pastor examines how French control over Syria and Lebanon affected the migrants This study explores issues of class race and gender through the decades of increased immigration to Mexico looking at narratives created by the migrants themselves Pastor sheds new light on the creation of transnational networks at the intersection of Arab French and Mexican colonial modernisms Revealing how migrants experienced mobility as conquest diaspora exile or pilgrimage The Mexican Mahjar tracks global history on an intimate scale Winner of the 2018 Khayrallah Prize in Migration Studies Lebanon: A House Divided Sandra Mackey, 2006-07-17 A beautifully written often profound account Chicago Sun Times With a new introduction by the author a seminal study of Lebanon s past present and future Covering Lebanon s history through the Civil War of 1975-89 Sandra Mackey lays the groundwork needed to comprehend this often ill understood country offering insight into its role as the gateway between West and East and bringing a clarity of focus to the schisms that serve to divide and define Lebanon An Enchanted Modern Lara Deeb, 2011-06-27 Based on two years of ethnographic research in the southern suburbs of Beirut An Enchanted Modern demonstrates that Islam and modernity are not merely compatible but actually go hand in hand This eloquent ethnographic portrayal of an Islamic community articulates how an alternative modernity and specifically an enchanted modernity may be constructed by Shi I Muslims who consider themselves simultaneously deeply modern cosmopolitan and pious In this depiction of a Shi I Muslim community in Beirut Deeb examines the ways that individual and collective expressions and understandings of piety have been debated contested and reformulated Women take center stage in this process a result of their visibility both within the community and in relation to Western ideas that link the status of women to modernity By emphasizing the ways notions of modernity and piety are lived debated and shaped by everyday Islamists this book underscores the inseparability of piety and politics in the lives of pious Muslims Visualizing Secularism and Religion Maha Yahya, 2012-05-22 Over the past two decades secular polities across the globe have witnessed an increasing turn to religion based political movements such as the rise of political Islam and Hindu nationalism which have been fueling new and alternative notions of nationhood and national ideologies The rise of such movements has initiated widespread debates over the meaning efficacy and normative worth of secularism Visualizing Secularism and Religion examines the constitutive role of religion in the formation of secular national public spheres in the Middle East and South Asia arguing that in order to establish secularism as the dominant national ideology of countries such as Turkey Lebanon and India the discourses practices and institutions of secular nation building include rather than exclude religion as a presence within the public sphere The contributors examine three fields urban space and architecture media and public rituals such as parades processions and commemorative festivals with a view to exploring how the relation between secularism religion and nationalism is displayed and performed This approach demands a reconceptualization of secularism as an array of contextually specific practices ideologies subjectivities and performances rather than as simply an abstract legal bundle of rights and policies

In the Shadow of Sectarianism Max Weiss,2010-10-15 Contrary to the conventional wisdom that sectarianism is intrinsically linked to violence bloodshed or social disharmony Max Weiss uncovers the complex roots of Shi i sectarianism in twentieth century Lebanon The template for conflicted relations between the Lebanese state and Shi i society arose under French Mandate rule through a process of gradual transformation long before the political mobilization of the Shi i community under the charismatic Imam Musa al Sadr and his Movement of the Deprived and decades before the radicalization linked to Hizballah Throughout the period the Shi i community was buffeted by crosscutting political religious and ideological currents transnational affiliations versus local concerns the competing pull of Arab nationalism and Lebanese nationalism loyalty to Jabal Amil the cultural heartland of Shi i Lebanon and the modernization of religious and juridical traditions Uncoupling the beginnings of modern Shi i collective identity from the rise of political Shi ism Weiss transforms our understanding of the nature of sectarianism and shows why in Lebanon it has been both so productive and so destructive at the same time
