From The Source Readings In World Civilization Second Edition:

From the Source Melanie H. Ross, Ross Kardulias Weste, Kardulias, 1997-12-30 World Civilizations Philip J. Adler, 2003
WORLD CIVILIZATIONS offers students a comprehensive and balanced overview of the world's major civilizations spanning from the ancient world to modern times. With more than half of the text devoted to non-Western civilizations, this Third Edition provides increased attention to modern-day Islam, pre-colonial Africa, the role of women throughout history, and the global effects of World War II on the various civilizations. Throughout, Philip Adler describes history as the story of how individuals have tried, with varying degrees of success, to meet their physical, emotional, and intellectual needs and desires.

Sources of World History Mark A. Kishlansky, Susan Lindsey Lively, 1998
This reader, edited by well-known author Mark Kishlansky, includes a diversity of historical documents from world and western history designed to supplement textbooks and lectures in the teaching of world civilizations. It is an ideal complement to WORLD HISTORY Second Edition by Duiker and Spielvogel, WORLD HISTORY Second Edition by Upshur et al, and WORLD HISTORY Fifth Edition by Adler. This reader provides a balance of constitutional documents, political theory, philosophy, imaginative literature, and social description.

Ancient Rome Matthew Dillon, Lynda Garland, 2013-10-28
A companion volume to the highly successful and widely used Ancient Greece, this Sourcebook is a valuable resource for students at all levels studying ancient Rome. Lynda Garland and Matthew Dillon present an extensive range of material from the early Republic to the assassination of Julius Caesar. Providing a comprehensive coverage of all important documents pertaining to the Roman Republic, Ancient Rome includes source material on political developments in the Roman Republic, 509-44 BC; detailed chapters on social phenomena such as Roman religion, slavery, and freedmen; women and the family; and the public face of Rome. Clear, precise translations of documents taken not only from historical sources but also from inscriptions, laws, and decrees, epitaphs, graffiti, public speeches, poetry, private letters, and drama. Concise, up-to-date bibliographies and commentaries for each document and chapter. A definitive collection of source material on the Roman Republic. All students of ancient Rome and classical studies will find this textbook invaluable at all levels of study.

Music in the Baroque World Susan Lewis Hammond, 2015-09-15
Music in the Baroque World: History, Culture, Performance offers an interdisciplinary study of the music of Europe and the Americas in the seventeenth and first half of the eighteenth centuries. It answers calls for an approach that balances culture, history, and musical analysis with an emphasis on performance considerations such as notation, instruments, and performance techniques. It situates musical events in their intellectual, social, religious, and political contexts and enables in-depth discussion and critical analysis. The companion web site provides links to scores and audio-visual performances, making this a complete course for the study of Baroque music. Features: An interdisciplinary approach that balances detailed analysis of specific pieces of music and broader historical overview and relevance. A selection of historical documents at the end of each chapter that position musical works and events in their cultural context. Extensive musical examples that show the melodic, textural, harmonic or structural features of baroque music and enhance the utility of the textbook for undergraduate and graduate music majors A global perspective with a chapter on Music in the Americas A companion score anthology and website with links to audio video content of key performances and research and writing guides Music in the Baroque World History Culture Performance tells stories of local traditions cultural exchange performance trends and artistic mixing It illuminates representative works through the lens of politics visual arts theology print culture gender domesticity commerce and cultural influence and exchange
