The Domestication of Genius Julian North, 2009-11-19 This is a book about the biographical afterlives of the Romantic poets and the creation of literary biography as a popular form It focuses on the Lives of six major poets of the period Byron Shelley Wordsworth Coleridge Felicia Hemans and Letitia Landon published from the 1820s by Thomas Moore Mary Shelley Thomas De Quincey and others It situates these within the context of the development of biography as a genre from the 1780s to the 1840s Starting with Johnson Boswell and female collective Lives it looks at how the market success of biography was built on its representation and publication of domestic life In the 1820s and 30s biographers domesticated Byron Shelley and other poets by situating them at home opening up their often scandalous private lives to view and bringing readers into intimate contact with greatness Biography was an influential transmitter of the myth of the Romantic poet as the self creating masculine genius but it also posed one of the first important challenges to that myth by revealing failures in domestic responsibility that were often seen as indicative of these writers inattention to the needs of the reader The Domestication of Genius is the most comprehensive account to date of the shaping of the Romantic poets by biography in the nineteenth century Written in a lively and accessible style it casts new light on the literary culture of the 1830s and the transition between Romantic and Victorian conceptions of authorship It offers a powerful re evaluation of Romantic literary biography of major biographers of the period and of the posthumous reputations of the Romantic poets
