Harvard's Classics Collection Complete 71 Volumes is a monumental anthology that serves as a comprehensive survey of the foundational texts and figures that have shaped Western literature and thought. This collection spans millennia encompassing works from ancient Greece to the Enlightenment and up through the 19th century showcasing a diverse range of literary styles including poetry, philosophy, fiction, and scientific discourse. The inclusion of seminal works by figures such as Dante Alighieri, William Shakespeare, Plato, and Charles Darwin amongst others highlights the anthology's breadth and depth, offering readers an unparalleled insight into the various currents that have influenced Western cultural and intellectual history. The contributing authors and editors of this collection are each luminary in their own right, having left indelible marks on their respective fields. This anthology not only collates works by philosophers, scientists, and literary giants but also orchestrates a dialogue among them, offering a unique multidisciplinary perspective. The collection navigates through Renaissance humanism, the Enlightenment's valorization of reason, and the Romantic eras' emphasis on individual emotion and natural beauty, painting a rich historical and cultural panorama. Through their collective works, this anthology encapsulates the essence of human thought and its evolution over the centuries. Harvard's Classics Collection Complete 71 Volumes is an essential resource for those looking to immerse themselves in the rich tapestry of human knowledge and creativity. Whether for scholarly research, educational pursuits, or personal enrichment, this collection offers an unmatched opportunity to engage with the texts that have served as cornerstones of Western culture. Readers are invited to explore this treasure trove of human experience, thought, and expression, which continues to enlighten, instruct, and inspire generations.

Napoleon Sarony's Living Pictures Erin Pauwels, 2024-06-28

Napoleon Sarony was once one of the most famous names in American photography. During the Gilded Age, his grand portrait studio, with its one-story high marquee reproducing the photographer's signature in golden letters, was a New York City landmark visited by celebrities such as Oscar Wilde, Sarah Bernhardt, and Mark Twain. Sarony's story represents a central chapter in the history of photography. Napoleon Sarony's Living Pictures documents Sarony's career as New York City's premier portrait photographer and details a moment when the birth of celebrity culture and growth of mass media helped promote popular acceptance of photography as fine art. Sarony's larger-than-life public image was crucial to demonstrating photography's creative potential. At a time when photographers were commonly regarded as straitlaced entrepreneurs or technicians, Sarony circulated self-portraits in outlandish costumes to assert himself as a flamboyantly eccentric artist. These photographic performances forged an authoritative link between the so called father of artistic photography in America and the stylish celebrity portraits that emerged from his studio by the tens of thousands Reconstructing Sarony s biography and bringing to light never before published portraits Erin Pauwels provides an illuminating view of how one artist s quest for creative recognition fueled the rise of celebrity culture and artistic photography in the United States This book will appeal to historians of photography and nineteenth century American visual culture as well as anyone interested in this master of the medium of photography and his celebrity subjects

TRAC 2015 Matthew J. Mandich,Sergio Gonzalez Sanchez,Giacommo Savani,Eleonora Zampieri,Thomas J.

Derrick,2016-05-16 The 2015 TRAC proceedings feature a selection of 14 papers summing up some of the key sessions presented at the conference held at the University of Leicester in March 2015 which drew over 180 delegates of 17 nationalities from a variety of universities museums and research institutions in the UK Europe and North America As this conference marked the 25th anniversary of TRAC the volume opens with a preface commemorating the last 25 years with an eye toward the future direction of both conference and community The proceedings begin with Dr Andrew Gardner s keynote paper on the topic of Debating Roman Imperialism Critique Construct Repeat This is followed by an array of papers with topics ranging in geographic scope and period from small finds in early Roman Britain to bathing practices Late Antique North Africa and from the investigation of deviant burials to the application of urban scaling theory in Roman contexts Because of this diversity the volume is not broken into specific sections however papers with similar themes are grouped accordingly allowing the text to flow and be read as a whole The range of contributing authors is also of note as papers were submitted by PhD students post doctoral researchers and university faculty all helping to make the 25th anniversary of this series one that continues to emphasis and reflect the aims of TRAC both as a conference and as a conduit for exploring more theory driven approaches to the Roman past
